Government Doesn't Want U. S. to Aid Foreign Monopolies MENACE FARM AID PLAN
Veto of Government Aid for Export Corporation is Probable

BY DAVID LAWRENCE

Copyright, 1926 by the Post Pub. Co.

Washington—President Coolidge is responsible for the policy of the United States government in asking private bankers to refrain from floating loans in this country which would aid government-controlled monopolies abroad.

This became known Thursday and it means that any bill involving government aid to any export corporation to handle farm products in this country will get a veto from the White House.

In other words, the president will not countenance inside the United States a policy of government aid to private monopolies which contradicts the policy of American policy is that seeking to prevent foreign monopolies from holding up the American consumer on the price of raw materials.

It also was learned today that the president through the secretary of state and the secretary of commerce has not merely declared war on the idea of having the American consumer charged high prices for rubber, coffee, potash, and other important commodities the supply of which is controlled abroad but that the basic principle of American policy is that foreign government should not engage in private business monopolies.

For several weeks the bankers in New York City have been complaining about the policy of the state department in refusing to withdraw objections to certain loans they desired to make to foreign monopolies. It has been argued that the American government was interfering in private business and it also was contended that the state department or department of commerce should say that a reasonable or an unreasonable price for commodities on such agreements could be made before the loans were floated. To all this the Washington government now replies that it will not go into the price fixing business and that its main objection is to the existence of the monopolies and the aid given them by foreign governments.

"We do not want the American people to buy bonds or securities which make them stockholders in foreign monopolies," said a high official Thursday. "It will save embarrassment later on because otherwise there will be developed groups in this country, who will be anxious to influence our governmental policy through the possession of securities in these monopolies. Indeed we have evidence that foreign monopolies have deliberately set out to inveigle American capital into their enterprises and are offering favorable commissions to bankers simply to get the American people to give stability to these monopolies. Now suppose, as a result of our conservation campaign or the development of new sources of supply that these foreign monopolies are adversely affected. Would we not be in a measure to blame if we had not warned American bankers not to engage in such loans?"

There is evidence here of a resentment on the part of the administration against some of the loans in which the American government objected were floated abroad and then some of these securities were purchased in New York for resale. This is regarded by some administration officials as a violation of the spirit if not the letter of the understanding with bankers that loans will be brought to their attention and will not be engaged in if the government interposes an objection.

Incidentally it was learned today that Ambassador Trenchard urged President Coolidge to change the government's policy on the floating of certain loans but that Mr. Coolidge did not treat the suggestion with favor, reiterated his position in unequivocal terms.

The fact that the president is insistent on the execution of the policy and that it may affect his attitude toward domestic legislation, which may be construed as a partial release of government aid to an export farm monopoly may be taken as having an important bearing on farm legislation this session of congress.

ATTEMPT TO SHIP AMMUNITION INTO MEXICO IS BARED

New York—(AP)—Charged with violation of the president's proclamation forbidding the exportation of arms and ammunition from the members of the crew of the Ward United States to Mexico, three line freighter Cauto were held under arrest Thursday.

Their arrest followed a discovery of 20,000 cartridges secreted on the ship.

Seizure of the ammunition and arrest of the three men took place Wednesday night but was not revealed by members of the special service squad of the customs house until Thursday. The men under arrest are: Horton Norman, first assistant engineer; Antonio Esteban, a fireman; and Frank Fernandez.

The raid was made on a tip that 1,000,000 rounds of ammunition were to be shipped Thursday to Mexico for use in connection with a revolt against the present government.

CHICAGO WILL USE ONLY MILK THAT IS TESTED

Herds Which Serve City Must Be Free from Disease

Chicago—(AP)—Only milk from cows, which have passed the tuberculin test was delivered in Chicago Thursday.

The local market was closed to any other source of supply at midnight when the city's pure milk ordinance went into effect. One half of the daily demand of 2,500,000 pounds is expected to come from Chicago's regular sources and the remainder from Wisconsin, Indiana and Michigan.

Strike talk and threats of violence among affected dairymen opposed to the ordinance have subsided, and Health Commissioner Herman N. Eundesen was optimistic over the favorable prospects of preventing distribution of milk from untested herds.

Confidence was expressed that every customer in the city would receive the usual number of bottles of tested milk at no additional cost when the milkmen made their deliveries Thursday.

For early delivery dealers had 1,000,000 quarts of milk from producers whose herds have met the necessary tests. Half of this supply was from dairymen in the regular territory and an equal amount from outside.

BOOTLEG KING FILES SUIT FOR $1,000,000

Cleveland, O.—(AP)—George Remus, former Cincinnati bootleg king, filed suit in federal court Thursday to regain $1,000,000 of his personal property, naming his wife, Imogene, four Clevelanders, and one Lexington, Ky., residents as defendants.

Remus charges that his property was taken from him illegally while he was imprisoned at Atlanta, pending trial for violating the prohibition law.

Remus alleges that his wife conspired with the defendants to turn over to him for negotiation government certificates for 4,085 barrels of whiskey which he claims were his personal property. He valued these certificates at $300,000. The remainder of the property, he said, consists of stocks and bonds, works of art and household furnishings.

Gun Fight Results In Capture Of 3 Bandits

Milwaukee—(AP)—A running gunfight in which two men were wounded resulted in frustrating a holdup of the Milwaukee loan office, the recovery of $15,000 in loot which had been packed in suit cases, and the arrest of three men, whom the police say attempted the robbery.

Defective Henry Mauger, coming out of a store adjoining the place in which the robbery was staged, recognized that something out of the ordinary was happening and ordered three of the robbers to stop. The men fled and the detective fired twice in the air and then fired to stop the

COURT BATTLE LOOMS TO KEEP HIM OFF TICKET

Coolidge Republicans Say Nye Is Not Member of Their Party

Bismarck, N. D.—(AP)—A court battle to determine who are Republicans in North Dakota may result if Senator Gerald D. Nye accepts the nomination of the Nonpartisan Republicans, who in convention Wednesday night, selected him as the Republican candidate for the short term for United States Senator.

The convention was controlled by Non-Partisans, who are inimical to the Coolidge or "real" Republicans. Resolutions were passed expressing faith in the Republican party, but condemning President Coolidge and all candidates for congress running on a Coolidge platform.

L. L. Twilchell, independent voters' association campaign manager, and classed as a "real" Coolidge Republican, declared that if Nye accepts the nomination of the convention and attempts to have his name placed on the Republican ballot as the short term candidate it will inevitably result in a court battle.

The Non-Partisans contend that they control the local Republican machinery of the state.

Nye, who was appointed to his present seat in congress by Governor A. G. Sorlie, has an agreement with Hanna that both are to run for the short terms as independents, leaving the Republican ballot vacant.

J. B. Hanna will be Nye's opponent at the June 30 primary election for the Republican nomination.

BANDIT WAR BREAKS OUT AGAIN IN CUBA

Havana—(AP)—Two men murdered, two seriously wounded, and the discovery of a man's body hanging from a tree are the latest developments reported from western Camaguey province, which has had a plague of bandits for the last month. More than a dozen persons have been killed or wounded in the last two weeks.

Near Velasco, two men were shot and killed and two others seriously wounded when bandits held them up in their homes Wednesday.

Another body, Juan Barranco Basulto, believed to have been one of bandits, who killed one man and wounded another near Velasco several days ago, was found hanging from a tree, on La Vega farm near Camaguey city. Rural guards investigating the case believe citizens may have taken the law into their own hands and hanged him.

Rural guards fought a pitched battle with the bandits Noa and Pena in the mountains near central Baragua Wednesday. The bandits escaped.

AIRPLANES START ON POLAR EXPEDITION

New York—(AP)—Conquest of the great Arctic wastes is the lure that already has started one expedition on its first lap toward the north pole and is spurring at least half a dozen other expeditions to completion of their plans.

Captain George Hubert Wilkins, and Lieut. Carl R. Eilson of the Detroit Polar expedition, happened on Fairbanks, Alaska, Wednesday for Point Barrow 500 miles away, on the first lap of their airplane exploration of the north.

A new expedition to the pole was in prospect Thursday when it was learned that the French Government is investigating the possibility of using American Steam Centipede tractors on an expedition.

FRENCH ADOPT PLAN TO EVEN THEIR BUDGET

Briand Wins Approval of Method to Wipe Out Deficit and Build Surplus

Paris—(AP)—The French budget is finally balanced after two years of effort in which four cabinets and six finance ministers have fallen. The vote on the combined measure was 226 to 159, a majority of 77, after an all night session at 9 o'clock Thursday morning by voting new resources sufficient to wipe out the budget deficit and establish a surplus of between 30,000 and 60,000,000 francs.

This success is looked upon as assuring the continuance of the Briand ministry for several months at least.

The vote on the combined measure was 226 to 159, a majority of 77, with 190 deputies abstaining. The senate is expected to pass the bills promptly without essential amendments, thus ending the first phase of Briand's effort to restore his finances.

The second phase will open when parliament meets after the Easter vacation. Finance Minister Peret will then introduce measures to finance a sinking fund to take care of the internal and domestic debts, bills already passed by the chamber authorize a national lottery and provide for the receipt of voluntary contribution for this purpose.

M. Peret, however, does not regard these provisions as sufficient and will probably introduce a bill for some sort of obligatory contribution acceptable to the powerful groups of the left.

In the session which ended with the adoption of the new measures the tide did not turn in favor of the government until Finance Minister Peret has proposed the question of confidence on the clause increasing the business turnover tax. The outcome of the vote was 227 to 103.

The first time M. Peret, as finance minister had made any question a matter of confidence in the government.

The receipts from the new measures are estimated at 2,500,000,000 francs ($37,500,000) while the budget deficit was 2,450,000,000 francs ($37,250,000). Allowing for variations in the yield from the new measures, the surplus will be somewhere between 30,000 and 60,000,000 francs.

HALT DEPOSITION OF COMPANY'S SECRETARY

Milwaukee—A temporary injunction restraining the directors of the Badger Mutual Fire Insurance company from deposing William H. Grabner, secretary of the company, was signed Wednesday afternoon by Judge J. B. Gehrz. The petition for injunction was made by Grabner, and is the outgrowth of the alleged embezzlement of $37,765 from the company by Paul E. Wenzel, assistant secretary. Arguments will be heard April 14.

NEW BLIZZARD SWEEPS OVER PLAIN STATES

Weather Man Promises Little Relief from Cold in Northern Climes

Chicago, Ill.—(AP)—A second pre-Easter storm was sweeping the Rocky Mountains region and the southwest Thursday as the March lion roared its way through southeastern Canada. The new blizzard, following a parabola course similar to the now waning greatest March storm in history produced four inches of snow in northern Kansas Wednesday night, the center of the disturbance having reached Arizona with indications of more cold and snow for the Texas Panhandle, and the expectation that the fast moving storm would reach Chicago Friday. Prospects for Easter Sunday were dubious, Professor Henry J. Cox, Chicago district forecaster, admitted.

Chicago—This country had fare well to one of the severest March storms in recent weather history, saw it enter Canada and continue its devastating way eastward, and then prepare to face a new disturbance brewing in the Rocky Mountains.

But while the first storm had passed, its effects were still visible in unprecedented drifts of snow that blocked roads, halted rail and motor traffic and made the larger cities veritable oceans of slush. The "great storm," as described in weather bulletins, swept out of the Rockies several days ago, cut a circular swath through the southwest and middle west, with auxiliary disturbances along the gulf and Atlantic coasts, and then moved northwesterly Wednesday night through the lower Michigan Peninsula into Canada.

The new disturbance in the far west was increasing in energy in a southerly movement, accompanied by general rain and snows in the plateau and Rocky mountain regions. General precipitation was promised as the storm moves in the great plains states Thursday, while the valley states and the western lake regions will feel its fury on Friday.

The weather bureau said no settled weather has yet been in prospect for the storm states, and that unseasonably low temperatures probably would continue in the northern district for the balance of the week. Central and eastern Canada Thursday are feeling the blast of the first storm wave.

MILWAUKEE GIRL GETS PARIS DIVORCE DECREE

Paris—(AP)—Mrs. Elizabeth Pabst Parmentier was granted a divorce Thursday from Douglas Parmentier, banker. The couple were married in Milwaukee Oct. 25, 1915. They have three children. The wife alleged she was obliged to leave home by the coldness of her husband.

NIECE OF PABST

Milwaukee—(AP)—Elizabeth Pabst Parmentier, who was granted a divorce from her husband, Douglas Parmentier, is the niece of Fred and Gustav Pabst of this city. Douglas Parmentier, president of Harper and company, a former Gustav Pabst man. The pair has been separated for some time. Last fall Mrs. Parmentier went to Paris to establish the necessary residence to begin her suit for divorce.

Mr. Parmentier sailed for Paris several weeks ago. The first rumors of the separation and possible divorce came last summer when Mrs. Parmentier visited Milwaukee. Her husband came here at the same time, but left almost immediately for the home of his brother, Jules, in Green Bay. At that time he denied that separation or divorce was contemplated.

FIRE WIPES OUT STORES IN SOUTH DAKOTA CITY

Sioax City, Ia.—(AP)—Fire practically wiped out the business section of Carter, S. D., early Thursday. The loss was estimated at about $100,000. The fire was discovered shortly after midnight in the Square Deal store, the center of the business district of the town, and all efforts to keep the flames under control proved fruitless. When the blaze had died down somewhat Thursday morning Carter was minus all its grocery stores and an old bank building. The hotel and postoffice constituted the only part of the business section left intact.

Second Cinderella May Wed 52 Year Old Banker

New York—(AP)—Frances Heenan, 15-year-old high school girl, is playing the role of a second "Cinderella" to Edward W. Browning, wealthy 57-year-old real estate operator who refuses to deny or confirm reports that he will marry her after her birthday in June.

Discussion of possible marriage plans has been put off by Mr. Browning while she is suffering from burns she received five days ago when an unknown assailant threw acid in her face.

Last fall Mr. Browning advertised his desire to adopt a girl not over 16 to act as companion to his 11 year old adopted daughter, Dorothy Sunshine. Mary Louis Spas of New York, volunteered for the role of Cinderella and was adopted. It was developed, however, that she was really 21 and the adoption was rescinded.

Frances is a student at Textile High school, and according to current reports to have been married to Mr. Browning on her sixteenth birthday, June 28. Mr. Browning describes her as a "lovely girl, 5 feet 1 1/2 inches tall weighing 145 pounds, with light brown hair, curly, but cut short, you know." Mr. Browning who divorced his wife in 1923, said: "I would not be right to talk about marriage when that beautiful little girl is suffering, that is why I cannot say definitely whether or not we will marry."

His secretary, however, said the reports were true.

Eight detectives are hunting for the acid thrower, while four nurses attended the girl in her mother's apartment in a building on the upper west side, owned by Mr. Browning. The acid burns are not serious and will leave no scar, the mother believes.

Mrs. Catherine Heenan, Francis' mother who came from Columbus, Ohio, several years ago discounted a suggestion that a jealous admirer may have been the acid thrower.

Mrs. Heenan characterized reports of an engagement as a joke adding: "Frances says she was only fooling when she talked of marriage. She says Mr. Browning was only fooling."

FIGHT AVERTED ON HOUSE FLOOR

Representative Mills and Rankin Near Physical Encounter

Washington, D. C.—(AP)—A near fist fight on the House floor resulted Thursday from an argument between Representative Mills, Republican, New York, and Representative Rankin, Democrat, Mississippi, over procedure in the impeachment case against Federal Judge English of Illinois.

After Mr. Rankin had demanded that a quorum be present when debate was resumed, Mr. Mills walked to the Democratic side of the house, apparently to urge the Mississippi to withdraw his motion, but Rankin met him half way on the double quick.

Other members, convinced that a physical encounter was threatened, kept them apart.

"Get on your own side of the house," shouted Rankin, shaking his fist. "You can't insult me. You are a dirty, contemptible scoundrel."

The speaker-at-arms helped quiet the Mississippians. Mills, apparently unexcited, then moved away, and the debate proceeded without a quorum call.

The incident gave a running start to the last day of a debate which already had taken its place as one of the most plainly worded discussions ever indulged in on the floor of congress. Passages of profanity and epithets continued in record of the case have been repeated so often in the presence of the galleries that house officials found it necessary to admonish members against the use of indecent language.

By agreement the debate will end late Thursday, but it is doubtful whether a vote on the impeachment charges can be reached before Friday.

Jessner Bases Defence On Police Persecution

Madison—(AP)—Attorneys for Rudolph Jessner, restaurant proprietor in Madison's "Little Italy," was insane the night of Jan. 4 when he shot and killed Policeman Palmer Thompson, in the opinion of Dr. Frank Studley, Milwaukee alienist. Studley testified to this effect when called Thursday morning by the defense at Jessner's trial for murder.

Madison—(AP)—Attorneys for Rudolph Jessner, restaurant proprietor charged with slaying policeman Palmer Thompson continued their efforts Wednesday afternoon to lay the foundation for their "persecution complex" defense. Thirteen witnesses were called to give testimony concerning the relations between police and Jessner and to describe treatment by the officers of residents of "Little Italy" where Jessner's restaurant is situated.

The state blocked the attempt by the defense to disclose alleged discussion in the police department through the testimony of William Griffin, police sergeant, who was called by the defense.

CREW IS TAKEN OFF SHIP WHILE STORM RAGES

British Tanker Races Line to Aid of Floundering Vessel

GALE SWEEPS COAST

Three Seamen Swept Off Coast Patrol Boat in Atlantic Harbor

New York—(AP)—Adding a brilliant chapter to the long tale of thrilling rescues at sea during storms of this winter, the British tanker, Shirvan, was enroute for Falmouth, England, Thursday with 28 seamen rescued from the British freighter Laleham.

The Shirvan, racing to the side of the stricken freighter in a gale 400 miles off Halifax, Wednesday night, bent the liner Mauretania, which also had swerved from her course at the first cry for help. The Mauretania resumed her course for New York after Captain A. H. Rostron had relayed a brief dispatch of the rescue by the Shirvan.

Captain Rostron, who was in command of the Camathia when he rescued the survivors of the Titanic in 1912 reported that the Laleham was nearly on beams ends and all lifeboats carried away. His message gave no details of the rescue except that the Laleham was sinking rapidly.

Reports that the American freighter Blair was in trouble were cleared up Thursday when the Export Steamship Corporation, operating the ship, received a wireless from its captain saying the freighter has experienced no trouble and had not sent any distress call. Naval communications officer Wednesday received an SOS signed "SSBlair" but nothing further was heard.

The storm entered the death of one seaman, swept overhead from coast guard patrol boat 159. Six destroyers and fifteen coast guard boats were riding out the gale at sea. Small boats along the coast and in Long Island Sound were harbor bound and two thrilling rescues were recorded.

At Lewes, Delaware, the dredge, Claremont, in tow of a tug, capsized, throwing her crew of 15 into the water. All were saved by the crew of the tug. Three seamen were rescued from the Perry boat Brennan, which was driven on a rock in Long Island Sound off Port Chester, N. Y.

4 FAMILIES DRIVEN TO STREET IN $100,000 FIRE

Hoopeston, Ill.—(AP)—Three business concerns were destroyed by fire, which drove four families into the streets in their night clothes here early Thursday. Of unknown origin, the fire did damage estimated at $100,000.

The two-story building destroyed, owned by J. H. Dyer, housed the John Petry Jewelry store, the Swanson Shoe store and the W. M. Glover Clothing and Tailoring store.

Four families scarcely had time to escape from the building after the fire was discovered.

ATTEMPT TO SHIP AMMUNITION INTO MEXICO IS BARED

New York—(AP)—Charged with violation of the president's proclamation forbidding the exportation of arms and ammunition from the members of the crew of the Ward United States to Mexico, three line freighter Cauto were held under arrest Thursday.

Their arrest followed a discovery of 20,000 cartridges secreted on the ship.

Seizure of the ammunition and arrest of the three men took place Wednesday night but was not revealed by members of the special service squad of the customs house until Thursday. The men under arrest are: Horton Norman, first assistant engineer; Antonio Esteban, a fireman, and Frank Fernandez.

BOOTLEG KING FILES SUIT FOR $1,000,000

Cleveland, O.—(AP)—George Remus, former Cincinnati bootleg king, filed suit in federal court Thursday to regain $1,000,000 of his personal property, naming his wife, Imogene, four Clevelanders, and one Lexington, Ky., residents as defendants.

Remus charges that his property was taken from him illegally while he was imprisoned at Atlanta, pending trial for violating the prohibition law.

Remus alleges that his wife conspired with the defendants to turn over to him for negotiation government certificates for 4,085 barrels of whiskey which he claims were his personal property. He valued these certificates at $300,000. The remainder of the property, he said, consists of stocks and bonds, works of art and household furnishings.

Gun Fight Results In Capture Of 3 Bandits

Milwaukee—(AP)—A running gunfight in which two men were wounded resulted in frustrating a holdup of the Milwaukee loan office, the recovery of $15,000 in loot which had been packed in suit cases, and the arrest of three men, whom the police say attempted the robbery.

Defective Henry Mauger, coming out of a store adjoining the place in which the robbery was being staged, recognized that something out of the ordinary was happening and ordered three of the robbers to stop. The men fled and the detective fired twice in the air and then fired to stop the

Coolidge Republicans Say Nye Is Not Member of Their Party

Bismarck, N. D.—(AP)—A court battle to determine who are Republicans in North Dakota may result if Senator Gerald D. Nye accepts the nomination of the Nonpartisan Republicans, who in convention Wednesday night, selected him as the Republican candidate for the short term for United States Senator.

The convention was controlled by Non-Partisans, who are inimical to the Coolidge or "real" Republicans. Resolutions were passed expressing faith in the Republican party, but condemning President Coolidge and all candidates for congress running on a Coolidge platform.

L. L. Twilchell, independent voters' association campaign manager, and classed as a "real" Coolidge Republican, declared that if Nye accepts the nomination of the convention and attempts to have his name placed on the Republican ballot as the short term candidate it will inevitably result in a court battle.

The Non-Partisans contend that they control the local Republican machinery of the state.

Nye, who was appointed to his present seat in congress by Governor A. G. Sorlie, has an agreement with Hanna that both are to run for the short terms as independents, leaving the Republican ballot vacant.

J. B. Hanna will be Nye's opponent at the June 30 primary election for the Republican nomination.

BANDIT WAR BREAKS OUT AGAIN IN CUBA

Havana—(AP)—Two men murdered, two seriously wounded, and the discovery of a man's body hanging from a tree are the latest developments reported from western Camaguey province, which has had a plague of bandits for the last month. More than a dozen persons have been killed or wounded in the last two weeks.

Near Velasco, two men were shot and killed and two others seriously wounded when bandits held them up in their homes Wednesday.

One body, Juan Barranco Basulto, believed to have been one of bandits, who killed one man and wounded another near Velasco several days ago, was found hanging from a tree, on La Vega farm near Camaguey city. Rural guards investigating the case believe citizens may have taken the law into their own hands and hanged him.

Rural guards fought a pitched battle with the bandits Noa and Pena in the mountains near central Baragua Wednesday. The bandits escaped.

AIRPLANES START ON POLAR EXPEDITION

New York—(AP)—Conquest of the great Arctic wastes is the lure that already has started one expedition on its first lap toward the north pole and is spurring at least half a dozen other expeditions to completion of their plans.

Captain George Hubert Wilkins, and Lieut. Carl R. Eilson of the Detroit Polar expedition, departed from Fairbanks, Alaska, Wednesday for Point Barrow 500 miles away, on the first lap of their airplane exploration of the north.

A new expedition to the pole was in prospect Thursday when it was learned that the French Government is investigating the possibility of using American Steam Centipede tractors on an exploration.

FRENCH ADOPT PLAN TO EVEN THEIR BUDGET

Briand Wins Approval of Method to Wipe Out Deficit and Build Surplus

Paris—(AP)—The French budget is finally balanced after two years of effort in which four cabinets and six finance ministers have fallen. The vote on the combined measure was 226 to 159, a majority of 77, after an all night session at 9 o'clock Thursday morning by voting new resources sufficient to wipe out the budget deficit and establish a surplus of between 30,000 and 60,000,000 francs.

This success is looked upon as assuring the continuance of the Briand ministry for several months at least. The vote on the combined measure was 226 to 159, a majority of 77, after an all night session at 9 o'clock Thursday morning by voting new resources sufficient to wipe out the budget deficit and establish a surplus of between 30,000 and 60,000,000 francs.

The second phase will open when parliament meets after the Easter vacation. Finance Minister Peret will then introduce measures to finance a sinking fund to take care of the internal and domestic debts, bills already passed by the chamber authorize a national lottery and provide for the receipt of voluntary contribution for this purpose.

WILL DEMAND LEVY

M. Peret, however, does not regard these provisions as sufficient and will probably introduce a bill for some sort of obligatory contribution acceptable to the powerful groups of the left.

In the session which ended with the adoption of the new measures the tide did not turn in favor of the government until Finance Minister Peret has proposed the question of confidence on the clause increasing the business turnover tax. The outcome of the vote was 227 to 103. It was the first time M. Peret, as finance minister had made any question a matter of confidence in the government.

The receipts from the new measures are estimated at 2,500,000,000 francs ($37,500,000) while the budget deficit was 2,450,000,000 francs ($37,250,000). Allowing for variations in the yield from the new measures, the surplus will be somewhere between 30,000 and 60,000,000 francs.

HALT DEPOSITION OF COMPANY'S SECRETARY

Milwaukee—A temporary injunction restraining the directors of the Badger Mutual Fire Insurance company from deposing William H. Grabner, secretary of the company, was signed Wednesday afternoon by Judge J. B. Gehrz. The petition for injunction was made by Grabner, and is the outgrowth of the alleged embezzlement of $37,765 from the company by Paul E. Wenzel, assistant secretary. Arguments will be heard April 14.

NEW BLIZZARD SWEEPS OVER PLAIN STATES

Weather Man Promises Little Relief from Cold in Northern Climes

Chicago, Ill.—(AP)—A second pre-Easter storm was sweeping the Rocky Mountains region and the southwest Thursday as the March lion roared its way through southeastern Canada. The new blizzard, following a parabola course similar to the now waning greatest March storm in history produced four inches of snow in northern Kansas Wednesday night, the center of the disturbance having reached Arizona with indications of more cold and snow for the Texas Panhandle, and the expectation that the fast moving storm would reach Chicago Friday. Prospects for Easter Sunday were dubious, Professor Henry J. Cox, Chicago district forecaster, admitted.

Chicago—This country had fare well to one of the severest March storms in recent weather history, saw it enter Canada and continue its devastating way eastward, and then prepare to face a new disturbance brewing in the Rocky Mountains.

But while the first storm had passed, its effects were still visible in unprecedented drifts of snow that blocked roads, halted rail and motor traffic and made the larger cities veritable oceans of slush. The "great storm," as described in weather bulletins, swept out of the Rockies several days ago, cut a circular swath through the southwest and middle west, with auxiliary disturbances along the gulf and Atlantic coasts, and then moved northwesterly Wednesday night through the lower Michigan Peninsula into Canada. The new disturbance in the far west was increasing in energy in a southerly movement, accompanied by general rain and snows in the plateau and Rocky mountain regions. General precipitation was promised as the storm moves in the great plains states Thursday, while the valley states and the western lake regions will feel its fury on Friday.

The weather bureau said no settled weather has yet been in prospect for the storm states, and that unseasonably low temperatures probably would continue in the northern district for the balance of the week. Central and eastern Canada Thursday are feeling the blast of the first storm wave.

MILWAUKEE GIRL GETS PARIS DIVORCE DECREE

Paris—(AP)—Mrs. Elizabeth Pabst Parmentier was granted a divorce Thursday from Douglas Parmentier, banker. The couple were married in Milwaukee Oct. 25, 1915. They have three children. The wife alleged she was obliged to leave home by the coldness of her husband.

NIECE OF PABST

Milwaukee—(AP)—Elizabeth Pabst Parmentier, who was granted a divorce from her husband, Douglas Parmentier, is the niece of Fred and Gustav Pabst of this city. Douglas Parmentier, president of Harper and company, a former Gustav Pabst man. The pair has been separated for some time. Last fall Mrs. Parmentier went to Paris to establish the necessary residence to begin her suit for divorce.

Mr. Parmentier sailed for Paris several weeks ago. The first rumors of the separation and possible divorce came last summer when Mrs. Parmentier visited Milwaukee. Her husband came here at the same time, but left almost immediately for the home of his brother, Jules, in Green Bay. At that time he denied that separation or divorce was contemplated.

FIRE WIPES OUT STORES IN SOUTH DAKOTA CITY

Sioax City, Ia.—(AP)—Fire practically wiped out the business section of Carter, S. D., early Thursday. The loss was estimated at about $100,000. The fire was discovered shortly after midnight in the Square Deal store, the center of the business district of the town, and all efforts to keep the flames under control proved fruitless. When the blaze had died down somewhat Thursday morning Carter was minus all its grocery stores and an old bank building. The hotel and postoffice constituted the only part of the business section left intact.

Second Cinderella May Wed 52 Year Old Banker

New York—(AP)—Frances Heenan, 15-year-old high school girl, is playing the role of a second "Cinderella" to Edward W. Browning, wealthy 57-year-old real estate operator who refuses to deny or confirm reports that he will marry her after her birthday in June.

Discussion of possible marriage plans has been put off by Mr. Browning while she is suffering from burns she received five days ago when an unknown assailant threw acid in her face.

Last fall Mr. Browning advertised his desire to adopt a girl not over 16 to act as companion to his 11 year old adopted daughter, Dorothy Sunshine. Mary Louis Spas of New York, volunteered for the role of Cinderella and was adopted. It was developed, however, that she was really 21 and the adoption was rescinded.

Frances is a student at Textile High school, and according to current reports to have been married to Mr. Browning on her sixteenth birthday, June 28. Mr. Browning describes her as a "lovely girl, 5 feet 1 1/2 inches tall, weighing 145 pounds, with light brown hair, curly, but cut short, you know." Mr. Browning who divorced his wife in 1923, said: "I would not be right to talk about marriage when that beautiful little girl is suffering, that is why I cannot say definitely whether or not we will marry."

His secretary, however, said the reports were true.

Eight detectives are hunting for the acid thrower, while four nurses attended the girl in her mother's apartment in a building on the upper west side, owned by Mr. Browning. The acid burns are not serious and will leave no scar, the mother believes.

Mrs. Catherine Heenan, Francis' mother who came from Columbus, Ohio, several years ago discounted a suggestion that a jealous admirer may have been the acid thrower.

Mrs. Heenan characterized reports of an engagement as a joke adding: "Frances says she was only fooling when she talked of marriage. She says Mr. Browning was only fooling."

FIGHT AVERTED ON HOUSE FLOOR

Representative Mills and Rankin Near Physical Encounter

Washington, D. C.—(AP)—A near fist fight on the House floor resulted Thursday from an argument between Representative Mills, Republican, New York, and Representative Rankin, Democrat, Mississippi, over procedure in the impeachment case against Federal Judge English of Illinois.

After Mr. Rankin had demanded that a quorum be present when debate was resumed, Mr. Mills walked to the Democratic side of the house, apparently to urge the Mississippi to withdraw his motion, but Rankin met him half way on the double quick. Other members, convinced that a physical encounter was threatened, kept them apart.

"Get on your own side of the house," shouted Rankin, shaking his fist. "You can't insult me. You are a dirty, contemptible scoundrel."

The speaker-at-arms helped quiet the Mississippians. Mills, apparently unexcited, then moved away, and the debate proceeded without a quorum call.

The incident gave a running start to the last day of a debate which already had taken its place as one of the most plainly worded discussions ever indulged in on the floor of congress. Passages of profanity and epithets contained in record of the case have been repeated so often in the presence of the galleries that house officials found it necessary to admonish members against the use of indecent language.

By agreement the debate will end late Thursday, but it is doubtful whether a vote on the impeachment charges can be reached before Friday.

CATTLE OWNERS BATTLE IN ILLINOIS DISTRICT

Elgin, Ill.—(AP)—Three deputy sheriffs were dispatched from Geneva Thursday morning to prevent violence between owners of tested and untested cattle at Virgil, 15 miles southwest of here. Seventy producers of untested milk at Virgil massed on the roads and would not allow sixteen men to deliver tested milk. A similar situation was reported at Maple Park.

Jessner Bases Defence On Police Persecution

Madison—(AP)—Attorneys for Rudolph Jessner, restaurant proprietor in Madison's "Little Italy," was insane the night of Jan. 4 when he shot and killed a policeman, Palmer Thompson, in the opinion of Dr. Frank Studley, Milwaukee alienist. Studley testified to this effect when called Thursday morning by the defense at Jessner's trial for murder.

Madison—(AP)—Attorneys for Rudolph Jessner, restaurant proprietor charged with slaying policeman Palmer Thompson continued their efforts Wednesday afternoon to lay the foundation for their "persecution complex" defense. Thirteen witnesses were called to give testimony concerning the relations between police and Jessner and to describe treatment by the officers of residents of "Little Italy" where Jessner's restaurant is situated.

The state blocked the attempt by the defense to disclose alleged discussion in the police department through the testimony of Michael Griffin, police sergeant, who was called by the defense.

CREW IS TAKEN OFF SHIP WHILE STORM RAGES

British Tanker Races Lines to Aid of Floundering Vessel

GALE SWEEPS COAST

Three Seamen Swept Off Coast Patrol Boat in Atlantic Harbor

New York—(AP)—Adding a brilliant chapter to the long tale of thrilling rescues at sea during storms of this winter, the British tanker, Shirvan, was enroute for Falmouth, England, Thursday with 28 seamen rescued from the British freighter Laleham.

The Shirvan, racing to the side of the stricken freighter in a gale 400 miles off Halifax, Wednesday night, bent the liner Mauretania, which also had swerved from her course at the first cry for help. The Mauretania resumed her course for New York after Captain A. H. Rostron had received a brief dispatch of the rescue by the Shirvan.

Captain Rostron, who was in command of the Camathia when he rescued the survivors of the Titanic in 1912 reported that the Laleham was nearly on beams ends and all lifeboats carried away. His message gave no details of the rescue except that the Laleham was sinking rapidly.

DENY DISTRESS CALL

Reports that the American freighter Blair was in trouble were cleared up Thursday when the Export Steamship Corporation, operating the ship, received a wireless from its captain saying the freighter has experienced no trouble and had not sent any distress call. Naval communications early Wednesday received an SOS signed "SSBlair" but nothing further was heard.

The storm ended the death of one seaman, swept aboardward from coast guard patrol boat 159. Six destroyed and fifteen coast guard boats were riding out the gale at sea. Small boats along the coast and in Long Island Sound were harbor bound and two thrilling rescues were recorded.

At Lewes, Delaware, the dredge, Claremont, in tow of a tug, capsized, throwing her crew of 15 into the water. All were saved by the crew of the tug. Three seamen were rescued from the Perry boat Brennan, which was driven on a rock in Long Island Sound off Port Chester, N. Y.

4 FAMILIES DRIVEN TO STREET IN $100,000 FIRE

Hoopeston, Ill.—(AP)—Three business concerns were destroyed by fire, which drove four families into the streets in their night clothes here early Thursday. Of unknown origin, the fire did damage estimated at $100,000.

The two story building destroyed, owned by J. H. Dyer, housed the John Petry Jewelry store, the Swanson Shoe store and the W. M. Glover Clothing and Tailoring store.

Four families scarcely had time to escape from the building after the fire was discovered.

ORGANIZE DRIVE HERE TO BOOST DEMAND FOR MILK

City and Rural Organizations
Will Cooperate in County
Milk Week

A campaign to interest people in using more milk is a drink and as an ingredient for foods will be waged in Appleton and Outagamie counties the week in May under the auspices of Appleton Chamber of Commerce and the extension service of the college of agriculture of the University of Wisconsin. It was decided at a meeting of persons representing various civic organizations Tuesday evening at the chamber of commerce. Ladies Stillman, Madison, representing the college of agriculture presented the matter. Explaining the drive was in which milk week had been observed in other states and counties of the state and told how the drink more milk campaign had been carried on.

Those present at the meeting were Robert Amundson county agent, Mrs. S. S. Shannon and Mrs. George Wetzel representing Appleton. Women's club Arthur J. Hall city chemist representing the chamber of commerce community welfare committee. Dr. H. H. Small representing the public school and Dr. H. K. Pratt representing the rural extension committee of the chamber of commerce.

Merchants of the city will be asked to decorate their show windows with appropriate milk week trims suggestions for which will be made in the near future. The importance of milk as a food will be stressed in all the schools. Service clubs of the city will be asked to serve milk luncheons the first week in May and one member of each club has been named to bring this matter to the attention of his organization. The men chosen for this purpose are Mr. Amundson of the Lions club, Dr. Pratt for the Rotary club and Dr. Small for the Kiwanis club.

A G. Meeting county superintendent of schools was named general chairman of the milk week campaign for Outagamie county and Hugh G. Corbett secretary of the chamber of commerce was chosen treasurer.

Decorated Slickers New "Wrinkle" For Flappers

College girls will not have to rely on the artistic ability of their friends to adorn their rainy day clothes this spring for the manufacturers of slickers and slickerolls as they call the umbrellas made to wear with slickers have trimmed their products with Charleston dancers' curls, blowing smoke rings and others simply promading around the surface of the parasol in brief skirts, flesh stockings and the other paraphernalia girls wear.

Scotch plaids in greens and reds mixed with other colors are perhaps the most striking of the innovations in the slicker itself, but another novelty is made like the colored balls children play with on the bathing beaches. Splashes of color appear on these raincoats, making an effect rather like futuristic art. Then there are the green red rose blue white yellow and purple solid colored slickers more like those that have been shown in other years.

The slickeroll is made of the same material as the slickers, and has a short, stumpy handle of carved bright painted wood. Fashion sanctions either matching the coat to the parasol or contrasting them. With the plaided slickers, umbrellas of shades to correspond with the predominating shade in the plaid are perhaps best, for plaid slickerolls have not appeared in the market.

Both plain and leather collars with straps are found on this season's rainy day coats and the coats themselves come in the heavy oil cloth like materials and in softer silky rubber-proofed fabric.

Horses to Get Over Drifted Routes

Snow drifted in an erratic way on Wednesday, the rural mail carriers announced Thursday morning, and it was doubtful if they would be able to get through the drifts with automobiles on Thursday, because the snow had packed solidly in the strong wind. For several miles, one carrier said, there would be a clean stretch of road without any snow, and then would appear a solid bank of drifted snow several feet in depth.

One of the annoying bunks for cars was located west of Mackville in the town of Center near the Peter Remi farm, where several cars hid to

PAUTZ CREDITORS GET 3.6 CENTS ON DOLLAR

Unsecured creditors of Otto Pautz, former Appleton grocer, who failed a bankruptcy petition last fall, will receive only 3.6 per cent of their claims the final dividend sheet shows. The dividend checks were sent out to creditors Thursday by C. E. Rehnke, referee in bankruptcy. The lowest amount was for 10 cents.

le shoveled out of the drifts. Shovel ing was only temporary relief, it was said for in less than half an hour places were drifted in as badly as before. The east and west roads were in a worse condition for traffic than the north and south roads, the carriers said.
On the county line east to the golf grounds of the Butte des Morts club passage was almost impossible, it was said. There were no breakers to stop the oncoming snow and the drifts were two and three feet deep almost all the way, and in some places much deeper.

BOGAN, MUENCH FOUND GUILTY ON ONE COUNT

Jury Acquits Men of Two Counts but Holds Them for Assault With Intent to Rob

Wilbur Bogan, Little Chute, and George Muench, Appleton, were found guilty of assault with a dangerous weapon with intent to rob by a jury in municipal court Wednesday evening after almost eight hours of deliberation. The men were charged with assault with a dangerous weapon and robbery, assault with a dangerous weapon with intent to rob and assault with a dangerous weapon with intent to do bodily harm, by George Dukwin, Appleton, but they were acquitted on the first and third counts. The case went to the jury at 11:55 Wednesday morning. The jury remained in session until 9:12 in the evening.

A motion for a new trial was to be made by attorneys for the defense Thursday afternoon and if the motion is denied sentence was to be pronounced by Judge Theodore Berg on Friday or Saturday. The case was started at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning after an adjournment from last week when Dukwin, the complaining witness, failed to appear.

WARN MAILERS TO PAY FULL POSTAGE

Business Concerns Cautioned Against Practice of Sending Underpaid Mail

A notice concerning the practice of mailing letters without sufficient postage has been received at the Appleton postoffice from the third assistant postmaster general in Washington, D. C., R. S. Regan. Provision is made for the dispatch of short paid letters on which at least 2 cents postage is to be collected on delivery, the notice stated.

This is intended to apply to short paid matter deposited through inadvertence or unavoidable cause, and it is not contemplated by the postal department that persons and business concerns will intentionally deposit first class mail matter not fully prepaid. Mr. Regan explained. Advantage is taken of this ruling to deliver first class mail matter without sufficient postage, it was said, and persons and concerns make a practice of mailing short paid letters at annoyance and expense to the addressee and an unwarranted burden to the postal service. For special attention has to be paid to the shortpaid letter at both the sending postoffice and the receiving office.

Some business concerns, it was stated, instruct their salesmen to pay no more than 2 cents on letters sent to the firm for convenience in the keeping of the accounts of the business, but the time lost in such a practice more than outweighs the saving of expense and time in the keeping of the accounts. Mr. Regan maintained. The mail is delayed both in the sending and receiving offices.

"When it comes to the attention of a postmaster that a patron frequently deposits shortpaid first class matter, the objectionable features and disadvantages of the practice not only from the standpoint of the postal service but from the standpoint of the sender and addressee should be carefully explained to him," the assistant postmaster general said.

WISCONSIN'S POLITICAL CIRCUS

Professor E. A. Ross, sociologist of the University of Wisconsin, is quoted in an address at Madison as saying of President Coolidge: "He is the smallest man who has sat in the president's chair since Franklin K. Pierce. ... He is silent because he cannot think of much to say. ... His policy is to give business what it wants. If business says it does not like the Federal Trade commission, he will pack the body with those who will destroy its functions." Etc.

Mr. Ross is not a sociologist; he is a politician. He is in unison with the machine at Madison whose purpose to make the University of Wisconsin a political training school to serve its ends was boldly proclaimed at the time it arbitrarily increased the membership of the board of regents to give it control. Men in Professor Ross' capacity who belittle the president of the United States—a president like Calvin Coolidge—are not straight thinkers. They are not fair-minded. Mr. Coolidge has his faults, what president has not? Even Professor Ross would betray some, we imagine, if he were in that exalted position. But to attribute to President Coolidge base and mean motives in the face of his public career is certainly not constructive criticism. We might expect that sort of criticism from a man of low intellectual order, but hardly from one occupying a place of dignity and possessing brains.

The prejudice of the indictment is reflected in the caustic and spiteful assertion of the president's "smallness." Really big men, whether sociologists or dermatologists, do not resort to opprobrious tricks in passing judgment on others. One would gather from the professor's harangue that there is no good whatever in Mr. Coolidge, that he is the enemy of the American people. Considering the fact that he was elected by the largest majority ever given a president after having had a trial in the office, the inference as to the facility with which the American people are bunked is not flattering. Does Professor Ross recognize the right of others than himself to opinions? Does he have no respect for the judgment of those "few" who disagree with him? Evidently not. Nor is it apparently the idea of the new regime at the University that there should be academic study of social problems, or that they may be considered without engulfing them in politics.

The newspapers of today, Professor Ross is alleged to have said, are dominated by advertisers. If he were in the business he might discover they are more often damned by them. We thought the orthodox view of Wisconsin "sociology" was that the press was "kept by Wall street." Now it is the advertisers. Mr. Ross should familiarize himself with the publication of a newspaper: he should listen a few days to the "troubles" of the advertiser as the newspaper has to. A man of his genius would with a few such contacts be able to form an "advertisers' union" that would soon put a real gag in the editor's mouth.

The University of Wisconsin, judging it by utterances attributed to this member of its staff and other incidents, is rapidly losing its standing as one of America's great free educational institutions, and is degenerating into a political circus.

ALL FOOLS' DAY

The first of April has long been dedicated to the fools. Each year the list lengthens. The year 1926 welcomes a few new recruits who should be officially introduced:

The fool who, being an expert and authority in one line, rushes in to express an opinion concerning matters upon which he is not informed and upon which he has no more right to speak than any other man:

The fool who, because the constitution guarantees him the right of freedom of worship, immediately interprets it to mean freedom from worship and thereby loses the inspiration of an hour spent in spiritual introspection and soul-strengthening:

The fool who, owning a Russian wolf hound, a country estate with a retinue of servants and an eight cylinder car, does not stop to count the cost of money that comes too easily:

The fool who, because someone holds a different opinion, rushes forth to call that one a Bolshevik or a hypocrite:

The fool who, because someone tells him the moon is made of green cheese, stakes his future on obtaining a slice of it.

The fool who, when the gold-brick artist points the way to get rich quick, buys worthless stocks and bonds;

The fool who, having won an argument, thinks that he has established a truth or defended the faith against error:

The fool who, because a thing is profitable, thinks it is also moral:

The fool who, because a thing is "the latest," wears it regardless of its appropriateness, beauty, convenience, economy or grace:

And there are many others who will never know that the day is celebrated in their honor because the worst fooled man is the one who fools himself.

MORE JINGO EXCITEMENT

The senate is in the throes of another war scare. This time it is an alleged conspiracy between Mexico and Japan, which is to give Japanese interests an immense land concession on Magdalena bay, Lower California, a strategic point of importance in the Pacific. Some fourteenth years ago an alleged move of this kind brought about the adoption in the senate of what is known as the Lodge resolution, to the effect that the United States would view with grave concern the acquisition of a point of military value on or near the American continent by a non-American nation or its nationals. So far the story of the Mexican lease is a newspaper report. It has been denied by the representatives of both Mexico and Japan at Washington.

Nevertheless, some sensitive senators are alarmed. Hiram Johnson is in quite a state of nerves, feeling the protection of the Pacific coast rests on his broad and noble shoulders. Senator Borah is scarcely less exercised. Whatever the facts, the isolationists, jingoes and anti-court senators are getting a kick out of the tale. Already the saviors of American nationalism have visions of our being dragged before the world court at the instance of Japan to determine the lawfulness of the supposed leases, whereas as a matter of fact we would be under no obligation to submit such a case, both by reason of the court's statute and by our reservation re-asserting the Monroe doctrine, to say nothing of the Lodge resolution of 1912.

However, we should not prepare for a break with Japan and the horrors of a war in the Pacific until we have reason. In all probability the present flurry will blow over like the many which have preceded it. It may be something for the jingoes to tear their hair about, but not for the people—at least not yet.

TODAY'S POEM

By HAL COCHRAN

Let's stop and consider the young lady, fair, who tends to a counter each day. From morning till night, through the long hours, she's there, and her job is a long way from play.

The customers come and the customers go for they're all on a shopping-time chase. But little Miss Salesgirl, I want you to know, must always stick right to her place.

She waits on the lady who never quite knows just what the thing is she desires; who monkeys around for an hour and then goes. No wonder the saleslady tires.

It takes lots of people to make up a world, and all of them shop in the stores. Through all sorts of nature's the salesgirl is whirled, as kindness and goodness pours.

So don't be surprised if she tires now and then, and doesn't come sailing your way. For every day brings the same story again, and she's lagged at the end of the day.

News from Portland, Ore., Hen has four legs. That's luck, if she has to scratch for a living.

In Paris, a man only 28 is charged with robbing 100 homes. Working too hard will get you.

They had a dog race in Canada. Broke a few records. Could break more if they let a dog catcher drive.

Woman shot her husband in New Orleans. A bachelor is a man who is afraid of firearms.

Health Talks

BY WILLIAM BRADY, M. D.

Noted Physician and Author

Dr. Brady will answer all signed letters pertaining to health. Writer's names are never given. Only inquiries of general interest are answered in this column, but all letters will be answered by mail if written in ink and a stamped self-addressed envelope is enclosed. Requests for diagnosis or treatment of individual cases cannot be considered. Address Dr. William Brady, in care of this paper.

NEVER MIND MR. COPPINS

Funny, but every time I mention here (or some correspondent mentions) the electronic reactions of Abrams I get a bunch of sarcastic letters. I'll tell the world they're sure, and I consider myself a competent judge of sarcasm, from more or less obscure, shady or unlicensed healers or their dupes or hirelings.

So when I published in this column February 8 the diatribe of the electronic reactions of Abrams I was with the expectation that I should receive a number of snappy rejoinders from people of the Coppins persuasion. My friend Coppins, you will not remember, was suffering from a sore throat or something, which he ascribed to his practice of sleeping with bed room window open and this heinous practice, it seems, I have urged in my talks here, and so Mr. Coppins threatened to have the newspaper dispute with my Dumb Dora column altogether if I did not take warning from his complaint.

The reaction to the Coppins reaction proved different from the kind I anticipated. It has been a surprise and a delight to me to find so many people who are positively not of the Coppins persuasion. A lot of these people have written to me to assure me that they believe my teachings in respect to the cry and how folks get it are true—of course I know that already, but it is mighty pleasant, nevertheless, to receive such assurances. Many of these people cite their own experience or history before and after taking my mental medicine, by way of corroboration, and nearly all of them express the hope that I will not pay much attention to the Coppins reaction, lest it sadden my temperamental and creamy style. I must assure these good friends that I get nearly as much enjoyment from a Coppins reaction as I do from a diatribe of Abrams. It is a trifle saddening, though, to think how many thousands of people have awakened in the morning with a sore throat even when all the bed room windows were closed beyond peradventure.

And then, while the lachrymal secretion is excited, think of all the unlucky mortals who have awakened from their three thousand six hundred fiftieth sleep in a bed with open window or without, to greet Bell's palsy. This is a facial paralysis, one sided. And think of the victim of this facial paralysis who is stricken with the paralysis after his eighteenth hundredth ride in a car with an open window through which the air blew over his head. But don't think of the other 3,649 victims of Bell's palsy. In fact don't think of anything if you want to believe Bell's palsy is caused by cold. One who would believe such a thing should not try to think—it might strain his brain. Doctors who hand out this line of bogus presumption that there is no danger of brain strain in the case.

In Bell's palsy the affected side of the face is immobile, remaining "frozen" even in emotional excitement. Perhaps this curious "frozen" appearance of the affected side, contrasted with the animated mobility of the sound side of the face, strengthens the notion that the trouble is the result of exposure to cold. The only apparent reason for ascribing facial neuritis or any other nerve inflammation to exposure to cold is that the doctor is unable to ascertain the actual cause in the given case.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

What, No Wisdom Teeth?

I have passed my twenty-eighth birthday and have never cut any wisdom teeth. Can you explain why? I have just 28 teeth. (Mrs. W. A. E.)
Answer—Evolution. Tabulations of large numbers of people by Talbot, several years ago showed that just 49 per cent of adults fail to cut out from all four of the third molars or "wisdom" teeth.

Twenty game and fish wardens, eight more than had ever been sent here before, were to begin work on the Wolf river early the next week, according to the statement made yesterday by District Attorney Mark Catlin. Mr. Catlin was in Madison the previous day and held the petition circulated by the Outagamie Fish Protective association before the Outagamie and the state commission. A meeting of the Outagamie Fish Protective association was to be held that evening at the Elk club. Final steps toward organization were to be taken to prevent the great slaughter of fish in the Wolf river every year.

H. C. Scholler was to deliver an address to the dormitory men of the Y. M. C. A. at the Sunday morning breakfast.

Chief of Police Michael Garvey had announced that henceforth roller skating on the sidewalks on College-ave would not be permitted, or would youngsters be permitted to use their wagons and carts on the sidewalks of that thoroughfare.

Miss Helen Hortense Newbert and Leo Halliday of Milwaukee were married at noon the previous day at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alden Newbert, 672 Lawest.

The marriage of Miss Minnie Selig and John H. Scherle was to take place on Sunday.

A marriage license was issued that morning to John P. Shipley of Madison and Miss Ellen Kallitzke of Appleton.

SEEN, HEARD

and

IMAGINED

---that's all there is to life

A man lives homeward, every day when working hours are done. His mind is turned to loaf and play and things that make up fun. He longs to eat a home-cooked meal that wife has prepared. He knows how good he's going to feel as supper fare is shared.

So buried in such thoughts is he, by seldom stops to think that tiredness comes with homeward, and the wife is on the brink. It really looks so easy, when the supper's on the table. To realize that cooking food is work, he is no able.

Then wife take a weekend trip, and leaves things on the shelf so dad, when he comes home at night, can cook his meals himself. The first attempt is not so good. With actions rather crude, he roils his steaves and sails right in the job of cooking food.

The second and the third nights, though, begin to tell their story. Dad wonders why he ever thought that mom was in her glory. But then, when she arrives back home and tackles work again, he once more thinks her job is soft—he's like all other men.

There's a heap more satisfaction getting by on push than on pull.

She was driving her new auto for the first time and couldn't understand how the cop could accuse her of going forty miles an hour when she'd only been out fifteen minutes.

SEZ THE WIFE: "Sure! I'll call you at 5 in the morning—but I know darn well you won't get up."

NOW, HONESTLY—

Live, and let live is no doubt a great idea.

But, why is it that so many things happen every day that tear it down?

For instance, consider the fellow who gets a great kick out of life through doing for the other fellow as well as for himself; through giving as much, or more, as he takes; through playing the fifty-fifty game in things in general, and through always being willing to help someone else, even at his own expense.

That's a fine spirit—except that for every man who plays life that way, there are ten men just waiting to take advantage of him.

When some men discover they are losing flesh, they might try letting a barber shave them.

SCANDINAVIA HAS

PROMPT TAXPAYERS

Special to Post-Crescent

Waupaca—Scandinavia village again is the only unit in the county with no delinquent taxes. So far as can be learned, the village has had only a little over $2 returned during the entire life of its incorporation, according to the abstracts on file at the court house. The complete returns to the county treasurer, L. J. Stadler, show a great decrease in the sum returned this year as against those of 1924. A total for the county this year is $27,022.78 which, compared with the year before, which was $14,948.92, is almost half the amount. Complete returns are as follows:

Town—Bear Creek, $1168.38; Caladonna, $307.94; Dayton, $3,177.97; Dupont, $531.10; Farmington, $1,496.31; Fremont, $1,453.92; Harrison, $1,902.65; Helvetia, $2,782.51; Iola, $1,476.81; Laramie, $553.03; Lebanon, $551.20; Land, $686.74; Little Wolf, $1,581.81; Madison, $1,032.81; Mukwonago, $903.90; Rosalton, $1,014.82; Scandinavia, $655.07.

C. C. TO EDIT
NEW BOOKLET TO ADVERTISE CITY

Publicity and Convention Committee Seeks Ways to Bring More Meetings Here

A booklet setting forth the advantages of Appleton as a city in which to live by giving detailed information as to the industrial, business, social, educational, recreational and spiritual life in the city will be compiled and published by the publicity and convention committee of the chamber of commerce at the next meeting of the committee at a meeting of the publicity and convention committee of the chamber Tuesday afternoon. The new booklet will take the place of a publication now used which has become obsolete because of the increase in Appleton's population and various civic improvements since the pamphlet was compiled six years ago. The present pamphlet is entitled "Appleton, Wisconsin."

A committee consisting of H. A. Schmitz, Erik Madsen, Eugene Colvin and Hugh G. Corbett was named to edit and publish the new booklet. Although it is not yet known just what form the publicity will take, a suggestion that the book be written as the story of a stranger who comes to Appleton and inspects all its advantages in detail, received some favorable comment.

A request from the Wisconsin Land & Lakes association for 15,000 copies of a booklet advertising Appleton has been received at the chamber of commerce and an effort will be made to supply the association with the proposed new publication. These books will be distributed throughout the middle west by the association.

Steps were taken to make more state and district conventions to Appleton. It was pointed out that chamber of commerce officers did not always know when conventions were to be held and consequently were losing opportunities to invite some of the meetings to this city. An effort will be made to get in touch with members of the chamber in as many different lines of business as possible and ask them to keep the convention committee informed of the coming news so that invitations may be sent to the organizations to hold their meetings here.

GOVERNMENT TRIES TO BREAK ICE IN RIVER

Water is being flushed through the valves in the United States government canal here with the hope that all the ice may be melted in time to start the navigation on Monday, the official date set by the federal government for opening river traffic from the Menasha lock to Green Bay. The date for the opening of navigation on Lake Winnebago has not been set. Ice in the lake has not begun to break up, according to word received from the government navigation office here Thursday morning.

Formulate Plans to Enlarge
Troop to Thirty-two Members

Waupaca—S. E. Sanders was host to the Boy Scouts at a banquet at Hotel Delevan Monday night. Plans were made for enlarging the troops to bring it up to the standard quota of 32 members. Besides the Boy Scouts, a number of business and professional men were present, including J. L. Crispy, Rev. F. C. Richardson, Prof. G. E. Watson, Soren Johnson, Roy Holly, B. M. Barnes and Judge William Martin. Donald McMahon of Weyauwega who is acting as assisting scout master for Waupaca troop No. 1, spoke during the banquet on scouting. E. H. Hertz of the Oshkosh group council talked on the proposed extension to include the Waupaca troops in the Oshkosh group. Mr. Hertz is the paid troop trainer for the Oshkosh group. Mr. Sanders has taken over the scoutmastering of this troop and is developing them into a first class unit. The personnel of the troop now includes the following boys: Donald McMahon, Donald Cook, Signore Hansen, Edmund Bailey, Clair Damon, Gary Czeskleba, Alfred Ostrom, Billy Koonitz, Conrad Wipf, Phil Court, Howard Wipf, Ruben Edminster, Lyle Johanknecht, Ralph Durrant, Eugene Hansen, Gerald Cook, Kenneth Woolever and Lyle Smith.

JUBILANT MUSIC IN CHURCHES ON EASTER SUNDAY

Special Services Arranged for Sunday and Last Few Days of Holy Week

Special music by the church choirs and sermons on the Resurrection of Christ will be features of the Easter services in Appleton churches on Sunday morning. No evening services will be held in the separate churches because of the Easter Festival at Lawrence Memorial chapel. Practically all of the churches had Lenten services during Passion Week and Good Friday will be celebrated either in the morning or the evening in the churches, by special music, preaching services, or celebration of holy communion.

A communion service accompanied by chanting of the choir will be held at the First Methodist church on the evening of Good Friday, and each department of the Sunday school will have an Easter program at 9:45 Sunday morning. At the regular Sunday morning service, there will be reception of new members, special music by the church choir under the direction of Carl McKee, and an Easter sermon will be preached by the pastor, the Rev. J. A. Holmes.

PREPARATION SERVICE
The Rev. A. S. Lanzetta of the German Methodist church will preach an Easter sermon partly in German and partly in English at the services of the church at 10:30 Sunday morning, and Holy communion will be celebrated. A special preaching service will be held at the church at 7:30 Friday evening in honor of Good Friday.

An English preparatory service will be held at the First Reformed church on the evening of Good Friday, and communion will be given at the English and German services at the church on Sunday morning. The English service will be held at 10 o'clock Easter morning and the German at 10:45. Easter music will be sung by the church quartet choir under the direction of Mrs. E. P. Nuss.

A sunrise prayer service will be sponsored by the Star League of the First Congregational church at 6 o'clock Easter morning for all young people in Appleton. Harry Leitch, president of the church of the services. An Easter program will be given by pupils of the Sunday school at a general assembly meeting of the school at 9:45 Sunday morning. Dean Carl J. Waterman, director of the congregation, will have charge of a program of Easter music at 11 o'clock Sunday morning which will include chorus singing and solos. Reception of new members, infant baptism, and an Easter sermon by the pastor, the Rev. H. B. Postbody will complete the program. DuBois "Seven Last Words of Christ" will be sung at a meeting of the congregation on Good Friday evening.

SHOW PASSION PLAY
The Passion Play of Oberammergau will be given by stereopticon views by Dr. Wilson S. Naylor of Lawrence college at the Easter morning services of the First Baptist church. Dr. Naylor has seen the play in the original at Oberammergau and will explain the scenes as they are shown. Special music has been arranged by the church choir directed by Mrs. E. L. Dunn, and the sermon, "The Risen Christ," will be preached by the Rev. E. M. Satter. A program has been arranged in honor of Easter for the Sunday school at 9:45 Easter morning, and Lenten services will be held at the church on Good Friday evening. A baptismal service will be held at the church at 2:30 Sunday afternoon.

A special service compiled by the late Bishop Cove of western New York, will be given at 7:15 Friday evening at All Saints Episcopal church. Henry S. Galtley, rector of the church was ordained by Bishop Cove. Good Friday services will be held at 10:30 Friday morning, and special music has been arranged by Miss Irene Bidwell, director of the choir, for the services at 7:30 and 11 o'clock Sunday morning. The sermon subject will be on the Resurrection of Christ.

CONCLUDES SERMON SERIES
The last of a series of six sermons on "The Influence of Christianity on the History of the World" will be preached by the Rev. Virgil B. Scott, pastor of Memorial Presbyterian church, at the Easter morning services at the church Sunday. A chorus of 30 voices will sing Easter music under the direction of Mrs. Marie Boehra. Communion will be celebrated at 7:30 Friday evening at the church, and a missionary program has been arranged for the Easter program to be given at the general assembly meeting of the departments of the Sunday school Sunday morning will be the first appearance of the church choir in vestments.

St. John's Evangelical church choir will sing the "Halleluiah Chorus from Handel's 'Messiah'" at the services of the church on Easter morning. Mrs. W. R. Wetzel will have charge of the program. An Easter sermon will be preached by the pastor, the Rev. W. R. Wetzel. Communion will be celebrated at the German services of the church on Good Friday night.

The Final Lesson, "We Learn in Genuz Up to Jerusalem with Christ" will be the subject of the sermon based on the passage, Luke 18:31, by the Rev. A. C. Froehke, pastor of St. Matthew Lutheran church, at the Lenten services at the church Thursday and Friday evenings. Communion will be celebrated at both the German services on Thursday evening and the English on Friday evening. Special music has been arranged by Herman Jahniko, director of the choir. Choruses, vocal solos and organ solos will be included. An Easter sermon will be preached by the pastor at the German services at 8:15 Sunday morning and at the English services at 10 o'clock.

MEMORIAL SERVICE
A memorial service with holy communion will be held on Good Friday evening at the First English Lutheran church, and a sunrise service will be held at 6 o'clock Sunday morning. A festival service with holy communion at 10:30 Sunday morning will include special music arranged by the choir under the direction of C. H. Hueseman and by the church orchestra under the direction of William Bieritz. The Rev. E. C. Teeter will preach a sermon on Christ's resurrection.

Holy communion will be celebrated at the Good Friday services at 8 o'clock Friday evening at the Trinity Lutheran church, and music by the senior and junior choirs of the church will be a feature of the Easter morning services at the church. Edward Kuether is in charge of the senior group and Mrs. E. L. Schreckenbach of the junior group. Miss Thelma Knuth will accompany the choirs on the organ. An Easter sermon will be preached by the pastor, the Rev. E. L. Schreckenbach.

The Lord is Risen will be the subject of the sermon preached by the Rev. Theodore Marth, pastor of Zion Lutheran church, at the Easter services of the church Sunday morning. English services will be held at 9 o'clock Sunday morning and German services at 10:15. Miss Anna Huber, director of the choir, has arranged special music, and the hymns, anthems, hymns and special songs by the choir will be accompanied by the Zion Lutheran orchestra, directed by Oscar Roth. Communion services will be held in connection with the English services at 9 o'clock Good Friday morning and with the German services at 10:15 and 10:30 Sunday morning. Communion services will be held in English at 7 o'clock Friday evening, and in German on Tuesday evening.

EASTER SERMON
An Easter sermon will be preached by the Rev. R. E. Ziesemer, pastor of Mount Olive Evangelical Lutheran church, at the morning services at the church, and special music has been arranged by Carl Jobe, director of the choir. A children's choir will sing several songs. Lenten services will be held at the church on Good Friday evening.

The divine offices will be sung at the mass celebrated at 7:30 Friday evening at St. Joseph church and the blessing of the holy water will be held at 6:30 Saturday morning. Devotions in honor of the resurrection of our Saviour will be given at the evening service on Saturday. Solemn high mass will be read at 10:30 Sunday morning. The mass schedule is 6, 7 and 8 o'clock, 9:15 and 10:30 Easter morning.

Masses will be celebrated at 7:30, 9 o'clock and 10 o'clock at Sacred Heart church on Easter Sunday morning, and on Sunday April 11, the children's first holy communion will be celebrated. Sacred Heart society and Holy Name society of Sacred Heart church will attend the communion in a body. The stations of the cross will be said at services on Good Friday evening.

VESTED CHOIR SINGS
High mass and the benediction will be held at 10:30 Sunday morning at St. Mary church, and a vested choir will sing in the sanctuary "Missa Exultate Deo" by F. X. Arens. Services will be held at 8 o'clock Good Friday morning at the church.

German services will be held at Immanuel Evangelical church at 10 o'clock Good Friday morning, and English services at 7:30 that evening, and special music has been arranged by the male quartette of the church for the morning services on Easter morning. Members of the choir are Wilmar and Ray Sauberlich and Roy and Chester Riesenweber. There will be reception of new members at the Sunday service, and an Easter sermon preached by the pastor, the Rev. H. A. Bernhard.

CONSTANT CURLING AND WAVING RUINS HAIR

Girls just must curl and wave bobbed hair to appear their prettiest. But constant curling and waving burn and dry the luster, vitality and very life from the hair.

To offset these bad effects, just get a 3-cent bottle of delightful, refreshing "Dandermine" at any drug store or toilet counter and just see for yourself how quickly it revives dry, brittle, lifeless, and fading hair.

"Dandermine" is a dependable tonic and will do wonders for any girl's hair. It nourishes, stimulates and strengthens each single hair, bringing back that youthful gleam, luster and vigorous luxuriance. Falling hair stops and dandruff disappears. "Dandermine" is pleasant and easy to use.

PICK 6 WINNERS IN 2 SPEAKING TILTS IN H. S.

Another Elimination Contest Is to Be Held to Pick District Representatives

Kaukauna—Edna Sager, Dorothy Van Leishout, Helen Weitenbach and Dorothy Golden were successful contestants in the Kaukauna high school declamatory elimination contest held in the west assembly Wednesday afternoon. Edna Sager's selection was "Hunger," Dorothy Van Leishout chose "The Lords Prayer," Helen Weitenbach spoke "The Third Ingredient," and "William Baxter's Dress Suit" was given by Dorothy Golden. Six contestants were entered in the contest.

The successful contestants in the declamatory contest held at the same time in the east assembly were Leo Schmalz, Elmer Grebe, William Ashe and Edward Lancelley. Seven were entered in this contest. Leo Schmalz delivered "Manufactured Intelligence," Elmer Grebe gave "The New Frontier," "America's Challenge" was given by William Ashe and "The Miracle of Lawlessness" by Edward Lancelley.

Another elimination contest will be held the second week in April to select Kaukauna's representatives for the league contests.

ANDREWS OILS GO IN TIE IN PIN LEAGUE

Kaukauna—The Andrews Oil bowling team of the Kaukauna business men's league grabbed two out of three games Tuesday night from Bankers to tie for first place in the league with the Kaukauna Lumber Co. WILL COLLECT, WRITE HISTORY ABOUT CHILTON

Advancement Association Appoints Committee to Conduct Work

Special to Post-Crescent
Chilton—A committee of three was appointed to collect and write the outstanding events in the history of the city of Chilton. A recent meeting of the Chilton Advancement Association. The residents of Chilton and the surrounding country will be asked to contribute to the work and the records of the city, county and state will be examined. An inquiry into the early history of Chilton necessitates some notice of the formation of the county of Calumet, which Chilton is the county seat. Calumet was established from Brown-co in 1856. Four years later in 1860 the southern portion of town, 17 in ranges, 17 and 18, or what is now Brotherhood, was detached from Calumet and added to Fond du Lac-co. One year later, 1861, Calumet-co was declared non-existing and its territory reverted to Fond du Lac-co. Then, however, Calumet-co was re-established. In March, 1868, all of Lake Winnebago north of the south line of the Brotherhood reservation and east of a line between ranges 17 and 18 or what is now the west line of Harrison was declared a part of Calumet-co. It is in this portion that a real estate mortgage was given by one party to another some years ago. The holder of the mortgage learned through the records of the office of the register of deeds that his mortgage was on a description in the water area of Calumet-co.

In 1849 the boundaries of Calumet-co were defined as they are at present. The name Calumet is that of a Menominee Indian village situated on the south-east shore of Lake Winnebago in territory that is now the Fond du Lac-co. The origin of the name is from the Norman-French Chalemet, a tube or reed, which was applied by the French Canadians to the Indian implement known as the pipe of peace.

To it would appear that Chilton, originally Stantonville, was founded in 1849 on the very same year that the boundaries of Calumet were fixed as they are at present.

The committee to whom this compilation of historical material has been assigned consists of ex-senator Henry Rollman, Col. George D. Breed and G. M. Morrissey.

Dale Edens, the younger son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Edens, is confined to his home by illness. Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Morrissey left for Milwaukee Tuesday afternoon, where they will visit the latter's sister, Mrs. P. H. McGovern.

On Monday Leo Greuel of Jericho sold to Wm. D. McMullen three grade Holstein cows, and bought through the same source three pure bred Guernseys, one sire and two heifers, for foundation stock.

Peter Lichtenberger, a veteran, bold man of Oshkosh, is in this city and will assist in the management of the Hotel Chilton for some weeks.

After an enforced lay-off for five weeks due to bad roads, the Manitowish-Pond du Lac bus line is again running on schedule time.

Arthur Pomranke purchased the Gies farm from John Schneider on Monday for $12,400. Mr. Schneider took the Pomranke home on State street in part payment.

MARVELS, BUDS TIED FOR LEAD

Upset in Final Games of High School Cage Tourney Results in Knotted Finish

Kaukauna—Miller's Marvels and Biskel's Buds are tied for first place in Kaukauna high school basketball league as a result of Wednesday afternoon's games in which the Buds defeated Welch's Wonders 25 to 4, and Farwell's Foolsies, who hitherto hadn't won a game, lived up to their name and fooled everyone by tripping up the strong Krontorfs, Komers, 8 to 3. These games were the last scheduled in the league. Starting Tuesday, April 6, the eight teams with the highest percentage in the league will enter the high school tournament. All the losers of the first day's games will be eliminated from further competition. The Marvels, Buds, Wonders, Vikings, Go-Getters, Nobles and the Foolsies will be the starters in the tournament.

In the first game Wednesday afternoon the Foolsies showed equal classiness playing. In the second half they let the Komers score a point while they chalked up 2 for themselves. The score at half time was 6 to 3. Farwell did some brilliant playing for the Foolsies while Krontorfs played his usual hang up game for the Komers. The Buds defeated the Wonders in a rather easy game with Biskel starring for the Buds, although in the second half the Wonders seemed to come to life for a while and made things real interesting for the Buds. The score at half time was 17 to 2. The Buds had the better team and displayed better floor work as well as a keen shooting eye. Welch starred for the Foolsies.

LITTLE COMPETITION FOR HARRISON OFFICES

Special to Post-Crescent
Darby—The annual spring election for the town of Harrison, Calumet-co, will be held Tuesday, April 6, and the polls will be open from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. MAY ORGANIZE BASEBALL LOOP

Plan Meeting of Team Representatives Within Few Weeks

New London—An attempt to organize a baseball league similar to the one in which New London played last year will be made soon, according to Charles Stuart, manager of the local nine. A meeting of representatives of the ball clubs of neighboring cities will be held here as soon as the roads are passable and preliminary plans will be formulated at that time. Mr. Stuart has announced. Applications for entrance in the league will be considered at that meeting, rules and regulations of the organization, subject to the approval of the competing teams, probably will be drawn up, and officers will be elected.

The 1925 league, known as the Waupaca-co Baseball league, was composed of five teams. They were New London, Manawa, Oak (Clintonville) and Marion. New London completed the season in first place. The rivalry between the clubs, was intense throughout the schedule, and all teams enjoyed a successful season.

George Schaefer and daughter Elaine of Sherwood.

William Greiner of Rhinelander is spending a few days here with friends.

Miss Lucille Hoffensperger spent Saturday with her sister Naama at Menasha.

The Christian Mothers society will give a public card party and social at Mainport Court on Monday evening, April 5.

A long drawn out lawsuit, lasting three years, between Lawrence Schueler and Matthew A. Sprangers over the purchase of a horse by Schueler, was dismissed from court at Chilton last week by Judge Fred C. Reagler.

Steve Maier and Johnny Fischer were business callers at Kimberly last Friday.

Mrs. George Wittmann and Mrs. Christiana Graff were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Mennebach at Chicago last week.

Mike Kortenbof has erected a new wood shed on his farm.

MRS. JULE THOMA SUCCEUMS TO DROPSY

New London—Mrs. Jule Thoma, 45 years old, died at 1 o'clock Wednesday afternoon at her home four miles west of this city following an attack of dropsy. She is survived by four children, three sons and one daughter. Her husband died 12 years ago. Funeral arrangements were not completed late Wednesday.

MRS. BUTLER DIES AT HOME OF SON

New London—Mrs. Mary Butler, 70 years old, succumbed to a siege of pneumonia at 3 o'clock Wednesday morning at the home of her son, Henry, in the town of Lebanon. She had been about one week. The son is her only survivor.

PNEUMONIA FATAL TO AUGUST HENSEL

New London—August Hensel, 47 years old, died at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning at his home two miles north of this city from pneumonia. He is survived by three brothers, Charles, with whom the deceased lived, and Walter and William, both of this locality.

HIGH SCHOOL SENIORS ORDER RINGS AND PINS

Special to Post-Crescent
New London—Whether the senior class of New London high school will hold graduation exercises this spring has not been decided. A meeting of the class was held at the high school Wednesday afternoon but nothing definite was decided at that time. No speaker has yet been engaged. The class will call another meeting Monday afternoon to appoint committees which will complete all arrangements if the class so decides. Class rings and pins are now being ordered by those desiring them.

WAUPACA ROLLERS FINISH SCHEDULE

Farmers State Bank Wins Championship of Tenpin League

Special to Post-Crescent.
Waupaca—The schedule of the Waupaca Bowling league is fast nearing completion and only postponed games remain to be played. They will probably be run off within the present week.

Aside from the winning of the league championship by the Farmers, which they clinched several weeks ago there were no other features during the closing week except the high rolling of Fred Loose of Wausau, who came to the aid of the Old National bank five which was so fully entrenched in the cellar. With Mr. Loose's assistance they were able to climb into sixth place where likely they will be found at the close of the week. Mr. Loose's latest achievement was to bowl an average of 212 for six games.

The teams now stand as follows:

Team	W	L	Pct
Farmers State Bank	41	16	.719
Grayco	33	27	.550
Four Store	31	29
Modern Restaurant	31	29	.516
Cow Punchers	26	28	.482
Old National Bank	21	33	.421
Rebells	20	36	.416
Holmes Bikers	18	33	.352

The 10 best averages in the league are held by the following: Fred Loose 192, Charles Larson 182, Martin Larson 181, Peter Schneckloth 182, Len Merl 179, C. Cook 179, Bob Holly 179, George Landahl 179, Gus Oop 177, Irving Cook 176.

MAY CONSTRUCT HIGH SCHOOL AT KIMBERLY

Special to Post-Crescent.
Kimberly—Plans for the construction of a high school in Kimberly were discussed Monday evening at a community meeting at the clubhouse. The various types of high schools and the requirements of each were explained by a representative of the state department of education. Talks were also given by Rev. F. X. Van Nistelrooy, L. L. Sensenbrenner and J. MacArthur.

The blessed Virgin Sodality of Holy Name church will hold a meeting Monday evening in the church basement.

Discussion of officers took place at the first meeting of the Ladies Aid society of the Immaculate church. Those elected were Mrs. P. J. Ford, president, Mrs. Carl Kneser, secretary, Mrs. R. Leasa, treasurer and Mrs. L. Brecht, flower fund treasurer. The next meeting will be held Thursday April 8, at the home of Mrs. C. Griese.

day April 8, at the home of Mrs. C. Griese.

Musical Myrtle and Pearl Huntington spent the weekend at Oshkosh. Mrs. Helen Jung of Menasha spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Sandhofer.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Frees spent Sunday at Omro.

The regular monthly business meeting of the Foreman's club of the Kimberly club company was held Tuesday evening at the clubhouse. A supper at 5 o'clock preceded the business session. H. Boom, general manager of the Kimberly mill gave a talk on organization. About 40 members of the club attended.

The Christian Mothers society of Holy Name church held a meeting Sunday afternoon at the church. The following officers were elected: President, Mrs. John Lynch, vice president Mrs. A. Bos, secretaries, Mrs. J. Layendecker and Mrs. M. H. Kettenhofen, treasurer, Mrs. P. Smith. The meeting was well attended.

FARMERS TO PAY T. B. TEST LOSSES

Mutual Aid Plan to Reimburse Owners of Positive Testing Cattle $35 Per Head

Special to Post-Crescent.
Forest Junction—The present agitation in Brown-co over the testing of cattle for tuberculosis affects a number of herd owners here who deliver their milk to the Fassbender factory in West Hollandtown.

Several herd owners were present at a mass meeting at Van Abel's hall in West Hollandtown Tuesday evening when more than 30 patrons of the factory had gathered to perfect an organization for mutual aid to members who may lose cattle in consequence of the test. It was voted that each farmer wishing to take part in the mutual aid project pay $1 for every cow or heifer which will freshen in 1926 into a fund so that an indemnity of $35 per head be paid from the fund to owners for every animal which reacts to the test provided there is a sufficient amount in the treasury for this purpose. The balance in the treasury, if there be any after all losses have been paid will be returned in equal shares to those who paid after the tests are completed. The meeting rejected proposals for payments of $1.50 per head and that owners bear the first 10 per cent of the loss themselves.

Sentiment was fairly unanimous over the project. Henry Van De Ha was chairman of the meeting and Henry Fassbender who operates the factory, was elected treasurer of the new fund.

here Wednesday morning consisting of 10 head, which will be offered at the Clark Classic Holstein sale at Fond du Lac next Tuesday and Wednesday. Animals were included from the herds at the John Kloehn, Frank Kloehn, Gustav Bloy, and Leonard Seybold farms. A number of cattle fanciers from here expect to attend the sale at Fond du Lac next week.

STAGE AND SCREEN

"FIFTH AVENUE HIGHLY PRAISED"

It is seldom in deed, that so powerful a story is presented in so pleasing a manner as is "Fifth Avenue" which will be shown this week Friday, Saturday and Sunday at Fischers Appleton Theatre. The production is unusually satisfying and speaks well for the producers.

As might be imagined from its locale—New York's Fifth Avenue—the production is lavish, and effectively presents the atmosphere of its romantic setting. Much of the picture indeed was filmed on Fifth Avenue itself. It is a Robert G. Vignola Special and boasts a cast of players whose work is little short of remarkable. The featured roles are played by Marguerite De La Motte and Allan Forrest while the other parts are in the hands of Louise Dresser, William V. Mong, Lucille Lee Stewart, Craufur Ken, Anna May Wong and other well known players.

The story deals with the adventures of a Southern girl who goes to New York and narrowly escapes being caught in the whirl of an unaccustomed life. In the unfolding of the plot, we are shown the "other side" in the lives of persons, who, outwardly at least, are paragons of respectability, but who are not unwilling to assist in deluding the innocent beauty from the South.

Of particular interest to feminine patrons are a series of elaborate scenes laid in a Fifth Avenue gown shop, a fashionable style show of model gowns. The picture is quite worth one while. Shown in conjunction with four acts of Vaudeville, Aesop's Fables and Topics of the day.

"THE COHENS AND KELLYS"
The most capable hands in Hollywood have made "The Cohens and Kellys" the Universal Jewel coming to the Elite Theatre on Saturday and Sunday.

It is coming with an all-star cast which includes some of the greatest old timers of stage and screen, all of whom are comedians extraordinary.

Charlie Murray heads the cast, with George Sidney and Vera Gordon also featured. Others in the cast are Nat Carr, the brother of Alexander Carr, Katie Price, Jason Robards, Olive Hasbrouck, Bobby Gordon and Mickey Bennett.

The story is a comedy-drama of quick wit and the relations between a Jewish and an Irish family on the East Side New York.

The Jewish family inherits a million dollars after having lived from the meager profits of a clothing store. That is the situation on which Harry Pollard, the great comedy director, has built the structure of his picture.

Those who have seen previews of this picture assert that it is the funniest and most human picture they

"BLUEBEARD'S WIVES"

HAS ALL-STAR CAST
Ben Lyon, Blanche Sweet, Lois Wilson, Dorothy Sebastian, Sam Hardy, Dorothy Kene and many others are in the all-star cast of "Bluebeard's Seven Wives" which comes next Monday to the Elite theatre.

"GREAT SENSATION"

Something new in the line of honest-to-goodness rapid action entertainment is offered at the New Bijou Friday and Saturday where that charming queen of flappers, Pauline Garon who co-stars with vigorous young William Fairbanks in "The Great Sensation" a perfection picture which Columbia releases, is playing.

Miss Garon rivals Fairbanks throughout in her strenuous quest for thrills. She races her roadster at breakneck pace and rides an aquaplane at a clip to take your breath away. And when it comes to the part article, she can show any of our present day screen stars a few things in snappy entertainment.

Fairbanks is well cast, as his role calls for some fast driving, a daring headlong plunge from a cliff to rescue the heroine and a terrific fight at the climax which should gladden the hearts of all sport lovers.

EASTER MUSIC FESTIVAL GREW RAPIDLY HERE

Pastors Lager to Cooperate to Make Annual Program Huge Success

A nationally famous Easter chorus, the Bethlehem 14 known as the Bach Festival, was what suggested to Carl J. Waterman, dean of Lawrence Conservatory of Music, pastors of several churches and others here the idea of having an annual Easter chorus festival in Appleton. The program this year will be Rossini's famous "Stabat Mater" and will be given Easter Sunday night at Lawrence Memorial chapel. Two years ago the Protestant churches of the city combined their efforts, and under the leadership of Dean Waterman presented Handel's great oratorio, "The Messiah".

Members of Lawrence School chorus joined in the great chorus and Prof. Percy Phillips, director, accompanied the singers. Huge crowds attended the two performances on Easter evening and the following Monday. It was realized that with the cooperation of the college and conservatory with the able leadership of Dean Waterman and with the beautiful auditorium of the college chapel Appleton had unique advantages for establishing such a festival of music. Scores of people from surrounding towns, from Neenah, Menasha, New London, Clintonville, Green Bay and some from Sturgeon Bay attended the festival. The sentiment quickly developed that such a festival at Easter time might become a regular civic institution, in which many outside the churches would be glad to join. The churches realized that by giving their singers training in the best church music under Dean Waterman the effect of the discipline would react on the music of the various churches elevating the quality and dignity of their own music.

Last year, the festival chorus sang Hayden's oratorio "The Creation" again with special soloists and orchestra accompaniment.

WATER BOARD OPENS BIDS FOR TRENCHING

Bids from local contractors for digging and refilling ditches and trenches for city water service this spring and summer were opened at the regular meeting of the water commission at 1:15 Thursday afternoon in the city hall. While the laying of mains and pipe line will be done by the employees of the water department it has been customary to award the contract for trenching and refilling to a private concern.

The monthly report was read and other routine business was transacted at the meeting.

WEATHER CONDITIONS.
The low pressure area which caused the storm here yesterday has now moved to the St. Lawrence valley and snow is still falling east of Lake Michigan. A slender crest of high pressure extending over the Mississippi valley is now causing fair weather over the central portion of the country. Another low pressure area is developing east of the Rockies and is about ready to cross the southern passes into the southern plains states and cause stormy weather again in the central states.

Carl J. Waterman (above), dean of Lawrence Conservatory of Music, will direct the huge choir which will sing Rossini's "Stabat Mater" in the annual Easter music festival in Lawrence Memorial chapel next Sunday evening.

ONLY 9 CONTAGIOUS CASES IN CITY NOW

Only six homes in Appleton are now quarantined for measles Dr. W. C. Lelton, city health officer, said Wednesday. The city is remarkably free from contagion and sickness for this time of year. In addition to the measles there are only three cases of scarlet fever and a few people suffering from the grip. There are no serious cases of influenza at the present time, although quite a number of persons were suffering from it about a month ago.

This is the time of year when the greatest number of grip and flu cases usually are found. People are easily fooled by the occasional warm weather and are altogether too eager to discard their warm clothing for spring attire and when the weather again turns cold are loathe to go back to winter clothing.

ATTRACTIVE WOMEN

If You Would Be Attractive
You Must Be Healthy

A beautiful woman is always admired. There are many types of beauty. But no woman can be truly beautiful unless she is healthy. Radiant vitality is always attractive. However plain a woman's features may be, many a woman has found her health improved through the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Weakness, loss of weight and a pale complexion were a few things of which Mrs. J. C. Taylor of Box 211, Tallahassee, Florida, complained before she started taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. "I could not even sit down and talk to a friend for any length of time," she states. "I would forget what I was talking about and felt so blue." Mrs. Taylor is so pleased with the work of the Vegetable Compound that she keeps a bottle of it in the house at all times—and when it is empty her husband makes sure that she has a new bottle. "I have regained my strength," Mrs. Taylor writes. "I can do all my housework now and I feel just fine."

Nomination for directors of Appleton Chamber of Commerce have been made by the nominating committee and ballots with the names of the candidates were mailed to members

Thursday. Five directors will be elected from ten nominees. The nominees are: L. S. Bradford, J. L. Benson, Herman J. H. Purdy, A. H. Wick, George D. O. Kinsman, A. C. Schell, W. O. Thiede, L. R. Whitman, H. C. Humphrey and M. A. Schuh.

The election will close at 5 o'clock Monday afternoon, April 12. Members of the chamber of commerce are asked to return the marked ballots before that time.

The election judges will be: C. M. Voth, August Brandt and Fred Schmitz. Results of the election will be announced at the annual meeting of the organization at Hotel North on Monday evening, April 12.

A joint meeting of the old and new directors will be held Wednesday evening, April 14, at Hotel Conway when the old directors will retire and the new directors take over their work.

FIRE LOSSES GROWING, KIWANISANS ARE TOLD

The losses have shown a large increase during the last ten years, Earl Task Green Bay, member of a national fire prevention committee, said in a talk on "Stop That Fire at the Kiwanis Club Luncheon Wednesday noon at the Conway Hotel." The speaker declared that in cities where the number of commerce had fire prevention committee the loss was much offset by the chamber of commerce will be selected by the directors at this time. The meeting is being held in the evening instead of at noon, as has been customary heretofore, because of the large volume of business which will have to be disposed of.

PICK COMMITTEE TO STUDY PLAY PLAN FOR GIRLS

Chamber of Commerce Directors See Need for Recreational Facilities

Plans for providing recreational facilities for women as well as men in Appleton were discussed by directors of the chamber of commerce at their regular meeting at Hotel Conway Wednesday. Mrs. S. C. Shanahan and Mrs. H. C. Hilbert, president and treasurer of the Appleton Woman's club, appeared before the directors and asked the cooperation of the chamber of commerce in securing means of recreation for Appleton women.

The directors of the chamber were favorable toward the proposal of the women's club, and President Joseph Koffert, Jr., appointed a committee of four to assist the women's organization in furthering its purpose. These on the committee are T. E. Orison, D. O. Kinsman, E. H. Jennings and Dr. H. K. Pratt.

Eight new members, bringing the total membership to 625, were reported at the meeting. The chamber intends to increase the membership to approximately 650 within the next two or three weeks.

Hugh G. Corbett, general secretary of the chamber, submitted a formal contract which the chamber will enter into with the traffic bureau, which has been made a part of the chamber. The bureau already is functioning as a part of the chamber, and is prepared to serve chamber members at any time.

The value of the traffic bureau already has been demonstrated, according to Mr. Corbett. A few days ago a local firm submitted three bills to the bureau, and the latter organization saved the firm $20 on them, which amounted to more than the price of one membership.

"The traffic bureau is now prepared to handle problems of traffic, bills, etc., for members of the chamber, and no one should hesitate to take advantage of this service," Mr. Corbett said. "An unusually capable man is at the head of the bureau, and it consequently will no longer be necessary for our merchants to seek the services of traffic managers in Milwaukee or other cities."

CHOIR RAISES LEVEL OF MUSIC

St. Olaf College Students Eager to Win Places in Famous Musical Organization

One of the most important achievements of the St. Olaf choir, which will sing an Easter concert in the new Memorial chapel Sunday afternoon is the influence its musical offering is having in raising the standard of chorus work generally throughout the United States. The fact that the St. Olaf students are able to combine this splendidly artistic, religious and ethical work with their regular college work has made a deep and widespread impression.

It has become a matter of common knowledge that St. Olaf students are as anxious to become members of the choir as students at other colleges are to become members of athletic teams.

The St. Olaf choir is decidedly an "open shop affair," membership in the organization beginning and ending with the college year. At the beginning of each new year a body of singers is chosen, old members being retained only if they are able to hold their positions against the vocal abilities of new contenders. Out of 900 students at the college about 300 try out for the chorus and of this number about 60 are chosen.

One thing to be especially noted is that the St. Olaf concert program is composed entirely of sacred numbers. The choir does not try to make its concerts popular by singing secular or humorous music or by hiring outside soloists or even by singing folk songs.

CHARGE NEENAH DRIVER FORGOT TO PAY FINE

Vernon Grove, Menasha, arrested by Officer Carl Radtke Tuesday afternoon when he failed to stop for an arterial sign at the corner of E. College and Lower St., paid a fine of $1 and costs amounting to $4.20 at the police station Wednesday afternoon, but Irving Stip, Neenah, also arrested by Officer Radtke on Tuesday while traveling 30 miles an hour on S. Oneida-st., failed to pay his fine. Both men promised to appear at the station Wednesday afternoon to "transact business." Chief George T. Prim was to go to Neenah to take Stip into custody Thursday afternoon.

Call Off Meeting

No meeting of the county health committee will be held this week due to the absence of Miss Marie Klein, county nurse. Miss Klein is at her home in Weyauwega where her father is seriously ill.

Mrs. J. E. Scanlon of Wausau returned home Thursday after visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Rishay, 608 E. Pacific-st.

Mrs. Letta Dambach Rannerman of Wausau is visiting her mother, Mrs. Mary Dambach.

BAKERS MAKE 8,000 HOT CROSS BUNS FOR GOOD FRIDAY MORN

About 8,000 hot cross buns will be made in bake shops in Appleton for Good Friday, according to a survey made in Appleton Thursday morning. Some of the bakers make as many as 150 or 200 dozen buns which for generations have been symbols of the Easter season.

This number is not as many as in some other years, it was said, but it would appear that the old custom of serving hot cross buns for breakfast on Good Friday morning is passing out. When this custom originated is not known, but for many years itinerant bakers have cried their wares on the streets of English towns, and children's copy books in school have carried a picture of a baker with his tray of buns hung about his shoulders, besides the rhyme written in honor of the hot cross bun.

Some of the bakers have had the buns on sale on Wednesdays and Fridays through the Lenten season, but the day when the demand for the small cakes marked with a cross is the greatest is on Good Friday.

DEFER TRIAL OF YOUTH HELD IN FORGERY CASE

Trial of Frank Hansen, 22 year-old Minneapolis youth charged with cashing a worthless check at the Thiede Good Clothes store, 128 E. College-ave, on Tuesday, March 23, was adjourned until Monday morning at the request of his attorney when the case was called Thursday morning in municipal court. The defense asked for more time to prepare its case.

Hansen is alleged to have passed a check for $12 drawn on the Citizens bank and bearing the signature of Joseph Miller at the Thiede store and gave an address on Oneida-st. The address was found to be fictitious after he had left. Later in the day he is said to have offered a check for $34.50 at the Hassman-Ferron store, 516 W. College-ave in payment for an overcoat. William Ferron, a proprietor, recognized him and called the police.

START BATTLE IN COURT FOR STREET ROUTE

Winnebago-co Institutes Suit to Condemn Right-of-way for Cherry-st Extension

Condemnation proceedings against John Lynch, occupant of the farm between the south limits of S. Cherry-st and Foster-st through which Winnebago-co is attempting to secure a right-of-way for extension of S. Cherry-st, were started in the county court of Winnebago-co at Oshkosh Wednesday before County Judge Dan McDonald.

Representatives of the plaintiff in the action testified Wednesday, while Mr. Lynch presented his side of the question to the court Thursday morning. Winnebago-co is represented by D. K. Allen, district attorney. Keller and Keller are the attorneys for Mr. Lynch. The proceedings were expected to be concluded Thursday.

The two principals in the litigation were on the verge of a settlement a few weeks ago. The area of the right-of-way and the price had been agreed upon by both parties, but the deal failed to materialize because Winnebago-co refused to allow Mr. Lynch ownership of the land in the middle of the roadway which would form the boulevard, according to Mr. Lynch. The owner of the farm also stated that the county refused to move two buildings, which would be necessary if the road was constructed through the farm.

SUSPEND CLASSES FOR 2 DAYS IN TRADE SCHOOL

No classes will be held at the Appleton vocational school on Good Friday or Easter Monday, although there has been no spring vacation at the school. Next year the vocational school will have the same calendar as the other public schools, and will have vacations coinciding with them. Heretofore, the school has had 40 weeks in the school year, and the other schools in the city system have had only 36 weeks.

NEW "BEER" NO GOOD TO DRINK, DRUGGISTS SAY

The 3.75 per cent malt tonic will not be "beer" in any sense of the word, and if it is made with as high a malt content as some reports have indicated, the brew will not be palatable as a drink, according to one druggist in Appleton who was questioned as to whether he expected to stock the product. The demand will regulate the supply of the "tonic," several said in answering the question in regard to the purchase of it, while one announced that he would not buy a stock of the malt if it was a beverage but would if it were only a tonic for medicinal purposes.

Even though the malt may be sold without permits or prescriptions, as the original report stated, if the tonic has a 25 per cent solid content, as it has been said, it would be nauseating as a drink, it was said. One druggist ventured the opinion that the government realized that more than a wine glass full of the stuff would upset the stomach when it legalized sister, Mrs. Alsted.

HI-Y CLUB DECIDES TO GIVE MINSTREL SHOW

Members of the Hi-Y club decided to give a minstrel show at Fischers Appleton theater in the near future after the matter was discussed at the club meeting Wednesday evening at the Y. M. C. A. The entertainment will be called an Alabama Song program. Club members interested in trying out for parts will report at the Y. M. C. A. Thursday evening. About ten song numbers will be included in the show. A definite date for the performance has not been set, as it will be necessary to make arrangements for the use of the theater.

The nominating committee submitted a list of nominees for club officers for next year. Further nominations may be made by any member of the club previous to the next meeting, Wednesday, April 7, the time set for election.

OSHKOSH-NEENAH ROAD IS TO BE OPENED AT ONCE

Winnebago-co Plow Will Have Highway Open for Traffic by Thursday Night

Menasha—The blizzard Wednesday night delayed train service. Practically all the trains Thursday were several hours late. Truck service also was delayed. A truck of the Wheeler Transfer company got through to Oshkosh Thursday morning after considerable trouble, but did not attempt to return until the highway was opened. The driver communicated with the county highway commissioner at Oshkosh and was informed that the county snow plow would have the highway between Oshkosh and Neenah open by noon Thursday. Truck service between Green Bay and other Port of Valley cities was abandoned Wednesday because of a blockade at McCarthy's crossing below Kaukauna. There was no interruption of interurban service or bus service between the Twin Cities and Appleton either Wednesday or Thursday. The street department had a full force employed Thursday opening up the streets, sidewalks and crosswalks.

MENASHA COPS ARREST 9 PERSONS IN MARCH

Menasha—Nine arrests were made during March, according to the monthly report of Chief of Police James Lyman. Seven of the arrests were for disorderly conduct, one for reckless driving and one for assault. Eight of the nine persons arrested were fined and one was held for municipal court at Oshkosh.

MORE BOWLERS BACK FROM BIG TOURNAMENT

Menasha—W. H. Pierce, Harry Gossett and Paul Kobbs returned from the national bowling tournament at Toledo, O. Wednesday night. Gossett and Pierce rolled a score of 1185. Mr. Pierce said the Menasha delegation which consisted of two 5-men teams was much pleased with the treatment it received. The remaining bowlers are expected home Thursday night.

ARRANGE 3 SERVICES FOR GOOD FRIDAY

Menasha—Services at Trinity Lutheran church on Good Friday will be held at 9:30 in the morning and at 7 o'clock and 7:30 in evening. The morning services will be in German with communion, and in the evening in English also with communion. The confessional service will be held at 7 o'clock in the evening. Easter Sunday there will be two services, in German at 9:30 in the morning and in English at 11:45.

BLIZZARD AGAIN HOLDS UP BRIDGE REPAIR WORK

Menasha—Because of the blizzard that raged the greater part of the night no attempt was made to raise Taycoast bridge at midnight Wednesday night for the purpose of getting the center pin and roller bearings in position. No definite date has been fixed for doing this work, but it is probable it will be done before the end of the week.

RESUME WORK ON PLAN FOR MENASHA CHURCH

Menasha—Mr. Auler of the firm of Auler and Jensen of Oshkosh, has recovered from his recent illness and is now at work on the plans of the new Congregational church of Menasha which he expects to submit to the building committee early in April. The seating capacity of the new structure will be approximately 300.

SCHOOL YEAR'S LAST QUARTER STARTS MONDAY

Menasha—The last quarter of the public schools opens Monday, April 5, and continues for ten weeks. June 7 to 11 will be the common term week. The schools will close for the summer vacation on the latter date. This schedule applies to all departments of the public schools.

KELLNHAUSER'S SCORE PUTS HIM IN LIMELIGHT

Menasha—Rolling a score of 611 in the national bowling tournament at Toledo, O. Tuesday, R. Kellnhauser broke into the head lines of all the leading papers in this part of the country. The count was one of the best of the day and landed Mr. Kellnhauser within reach of the prize.

BUSINESS MEN AGAIN LOSE TO NEENAH TEAM

Menasha—The business men's volleyball team was defeated five games out of six at Roosevelt gymnasium at Neenah Wednesday night by Neenah young men's team. It was the second of a series of games between the two teams. Neenah won both games.

NEENAH POLICE MAKE 15 ARRESTS IN MONTH

Neenah—Fifteen arrests were made by local police officers during the month of March according to the report of Charles Watts, chief of the police department. Of this number six arrests were made for drunkenness, one for disorderly conduct, three for vagrancy, one for selling moonshine whiskey, one for speeding, one for stealing an automobile, and one runaway boy was picked up here and returned to his home. The workhouse and county jail received six of the law breakers while others were fined. The auto thief was turned over to Wisconsin Rapids authorities as he was wanted there on a similar charge.

Joseph and E. Gorman of Bethlehem, Pa., and Crowley of Boston, are guests of Francis Hutton. The four young men are school mates at Notre Dame college.

Word received from the John R. Davis and W. L. Davis party which is at present in Daytona Beach, Fla., states that they expect to be back in Neenah the latter part of the present month.

Stanley Pearson is spending a few days in Michigan cities with his brother, Irwin Pearson, who is traveling in that state for the Jersid Knitting company of Neenah.

Miss Mary Russell, who has been employed in a Florida real estate office for the last few months, has resigned and has left for New York where she will visit before returning to Neenah.

TRAVELER TALKS AT MEETING OF ROTARY

Neenah—Dr. Mursell of England, who has circled the world five times and is now on his way from England to Australia, was speaker Thursday noon at the weekly luncheon of Rotary club. Dr. Mursell is spending a few days with his son who is an instructor at Lawrence college, Appleton.

His talk Thursday noon concerned business conditions in England.

Twin City Deaths

Neenah—Funeral services for Mrs. Louis Pandow who died in Clayton, Monday, and which was to have been held Thursday afternoon, has been postponed until Saturday afternoon. The body was to have been taken to Dale for burial but because the roads were blocked with snow it was impossible to hold the services as planned.

G. J. KRUEGER, 72, father of Mrs. A. H. Krueger of Neenah, died Wednesday evening at his home in Oshkosh, following a short illness with pneumonia. The body will be taken to Princeton where on Sunday afternoon the funeral services will be conducted. Mr. Krueger was well known in Neenah.

NEW CORPORATION

THE YELLOW STUB

by Ernest Lynn

BEGIN HERE TODAY
HENRY RAND, middle-aged business man, expected home by his family to celebrate his son JIMMY'S 27th birthday, is found dead by police in a cheap hotel. The room is filled with gas. There is a welt on the back of his head.

The only clues are a woman's handkerchief and the stub of a yellow theater ticket from the Paragon Theater, Milwaukee. Jimmy's sister, JANET, breaks her engagement with BARRY COLVIN after the murder and Jimmy goes to Milwaukee with DETECTIVE MOONEY, where they trace the ticket stub to a THOMAS FOGARTY.

Jimmy saves MARY LOWELL, a Milwaukee girl, from the attentions of two maddens. The next night he and Mooney lay a trap for FOGARTY. They follow him to his hotel room.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY CHAPTER IX

"Come," a deep bass voice spoke from the room. Mooney turned the knob and slipped quietly into the room with Rand at his heels. They closed the door behind them and stood facing Fogarty.

He was sitting on the bed, tearing a letter from its envelope, and did not look up at once, obviously thinking a bell had just rung. "The utter silence in the room made him turn his head. He saw Mooney and Jimmy. The letter dropped from his grasp. He jumped to his feet. 'Who the hell are you?' he demanded."

"Sit down, Fogarty," Mooney strode into the middle of the room and displayed his badge. "Nobody's going to start any rough stuff as long as you behave yourself. We want to ask you a few questions."

"You fresh dick, I'll have you hustled for this!" The veins in Fogarty's fat neck swelled. His face turned several shades redder.

"All right," answered Mooney, "but not till I get through. In the first place, Mr. Fogarty, did you ever hear of Henry Rand?" "The little detective was watching Fogarty closely."

"Never heard of him."

"Henry Rand of Grafton?" pursued Mooney, his eyes still on the other's face.

"No," Fogarty shook his head. "What's the game?" he asked angrily.

"Just this, Mr. Fogarty. A man by the name of Henry Rand—this man's father here," indicating Jimmy—"was killed in a hotel in Grafton last Wednesday. The room was engaged Tuesday night by a man who gave the name of H. A. Jones of New York. That man, by the way, had red hair."

He said. "What's this, a frame-up?" Fogarty gave a contemptuous laugh. "You'll have to come closer than that."

"I'm not through yet," continued Mooney. "In the room where the murder was committed they found a woman's handkerchief and the stub of a theater ticket. Here's the ticket, Fogarty."

He extracted the stub from his wallet and tossed it in the chair in front of Fogarty. "See if you recognize it."

Jimmy watched the big man intently as he picked up the yellow ticket stub and examined it. "By God!" Fogarty exclaimed. "It's my ticket, all right."

In just that fleeting instant Jimmy told himself that his search was to go beyond Fogarty. This man, he decided, was not the murderer of his father. But undoubtedly he held the key.

Mooney smiled as he held out his hand for the stub. "Sure it's your ticket, Fogarty. And here's something else. That ticket was used last Monday night and the man who held it was in the Canfield Hotel in Grafton Tuesday night. Fogarty, you weren't in your room here Tuesday night. Where were you?"

Fogarty was sweating. He mopped his forehead with a huge handkerchief. "Tuesday night," he repeated. "I know," he exclaimed, his eyes lighting. "Tuesday night I was out playing poker with some of the boys. In the Horseshoe Club. The game didn't break up until nine in the morning. I stopped to get some thing to eat and then came back here and went to bed."

"We'll check that story right now," said Mooney. "Rand, look in the phone book for the Horseshoe Club and give them a ring. Who was with you?" he asked Fogarty.

"Tell him to ask for Alec Blaine. He lives at the club. If he isn't there one of the porters can tell you."

"Try to get hold of Blaine," Mooney nodded to Jimmy, who was at the phone.

Jimmy had got his number. "I'd like to speak to Mr. Alec Blaine, please, if he's there." He turned to Mooney. "He's there. They're ringing his room."

"Here, let me talk to him," Mooney picked up the receiver. "Hello, Hello—Mr. Blaine? This is Phil Mooney talking—a friend of Tom Fogarty's. Tom's in a little trouble. I want to know from you when was the last time you saw him. You did, eh? What night? . . . Oh yeah. When did the game break up? . . . What am I drivin' at? Ask Tom, he'll tell you."

He hung up the receiver. "Your story's good as far as it goes. Fogarty, although it'll take a lot more checking than that. Now suppose you explain how that ticket got in that room."

There was a knock at the door. "Come," called Fogarty. A bell boy deposited a tray bearing ginger ale and cracked ice and departed.

Fogarty opened a bureau drawer and pulled out a bottle. "Have a drink, Mr.—say what's your name, anyway?"

"Mooney," answered the detective. "No, I don't drink."

"Mr. Rand?" Fogarty turned to Jimmy, with a gesture of the hands toward the bottle.

"No thanks, not just now."

Fogarty poured himself a stiff drink, mixing it with ginger ale and ice.

"Mooney," he said, "I can't tell you how that ticket got in the room, because I didn't go to the theater that night. It might sound like a funny alibi to you, but I swear I gave that ticket away Monday afternoon."

He paused. "All right," snapped Mooney, "who did you give it to?"

"Mooney, I gave that ticket to a woman."

To Jimmy, who was listening intently, Fogarty's words were like a blow in the face.

"No, Fogarty," he cried. "It couldn't have been a woman that did this!"

"Wait a minute, Rand," Mooney ordered. "Let's hear this thing through." He opened the wallet. "This handkerchief," he said, "fits in some place. . . . Go ahead, Fogarty."

Fogarty emptied his glass, his hand

a trifle unsteady. "Here's all I know about it, I Mooney," he continued. "Monday afternoon I happened to be passing the Paragon Theater and I went in and got my ticket for the show that night. Ordinarily I call for it in the evening just before the show starts, unless I'm ordering an extra seat."

"But I went in and got the ticket and looked around at the billboards in the lobby. It was a pretty good show, so they said—a musical comedy. It was a sellout."

"Well, I came back to the hotel and something turned up—I'll tell you about it later—that made it impossible for me to go to the show. I was thinking of turning in the ticket to the hotel porter when I met this woman. Olga Maynard's her name. I got to know her when she was singing in a cabaret in town here. I knew she was down on her luck—she'd lost a couple of cabaret jobs for some reason or other—and I asked her if she could use the ticket."

"She's a good singer herself, and nuts about the stage. . . . Got ambitions, I guess. Anyway, she took the ticket. That's the last I saw of her—and of the ticket, too, until you just showed it to me."

"How well do you know this Maynard woman?" asked Mooney.

"I've been out with her on a couple of parties. Not very well, I guess. I met her in a cabaret."

"Where is she working now?"

"She isn't working. At least she wasn't when I talked with her Monday."

"What's the matter with her that she can't hold a job? You say she's a good singer."

"I don't know, Mooney. Maybe they got something on her. Maybe it's just tough breaks. I don't know."

"Is she crooked?" asked Mooney. "You know what I mean, Fogarty. Is she a gold digger?"

"I can't tell you that, either. Personally, I'd always thought she was a pretty square shooter. But she might have got mixed up in some kind of scrape or other. I'd be willing to bank on her myself."

Fogarty pulled a little black leather book from his pocket. He thumbed its pages and then held it open to the detective.

"Here's her phone number and her address," he said. He shifted uncomfortably on the bed.

Mooney turned to Jimmy. "We'll get a cab and go up there. Rand, we won't call her up." He picked up the handkerchief, which lay on the chair with the stub. To Fogarty he said, "Can you tell me whether this is the Maynard woman's handkerchief?"

Fogarty shook his head. "Did she use this kind of perfume?" Mooney persisted.

"Couldn't tell you, Mooney," Fogarty barely glanced at the handkerchief. . . . He stared out of the window.

"Fogarty," Mooney's voice was sharp, like the crack of a whip.

SET NEW DATES FOR CONTESTS IN RURAL SCHOOLS

Meeting Explains Rules for Annual Athletic and Scholarship Competition

Two changes have been made in the preliminary rural school contests of Outagamie county in order to conform with rules for the state contests, an announcement to the schools from the office of A. G. Meating, county superintendent, says. The preliminary contests must be held in town centers rather than sectional centers, and there also is a change in dates.

Diploma examinations for common schools will be given May 15 and 22 at the centers, making it necessary to hold the town contests in spelling, arithmetic, penmanship, declamations, combined facts school, Cicero, Cicero examinations will be held at general graded schools, Dale, Dale graded school, considering roads and school room arrangements. Winners of first and second places in local contests will enter town contests. The Fogarty did not answer. He was staring out of the window, his brows knit in a frown.

"Come on, out with it, Fogarty," thing to you about going out of the woods yet yourself?"

Fogarty turned to face him. "Yes, in athletics, have been sent out from she did," he said. She said she was going to Grafton the next day to look for a job."

HOW THE CRACKNUTS GOT SPRING CLEANED

Now everybody knows that Mister Cracknuts is the neatest person in the world.

The March Hare didn't have to pull him out by the tail to get him to go to Scrub-Up Land to be spring cleaned. No sir! He walked right off like a gentleman and hunted up the path by the secret bush that led to the little Fairyland country where Mister Rubadub lived, and got himself all fixed up as slick as a new shoe.

He had a Turkish bath and a shampoo and a hair cut and a shave and a manicure and everything they give you in Scrub-Up Land. And he had his clothes brushed and oh—just everything!

Then he went home and showed himself off to his wife.

"You look fine, Daddy," said that lady proudly. "I'm all ready, too." And indeed she did look as glossy and bright as the other new shoes. Ladies know how to fix themselves; so, anyway, my dears, without having to traipse off to barber-shops.

"But Scamper is a sight!" she declared. "And I can't get him up. Here you and I are all ready for our trip to the Land-Where-Spring-Is-Coming and we can't get a step with him looking as he does."

Just then there was a knock at the door, and Mrs. Cracknuts opened it. There stood the March Hare with his book. Beside him stood the Twins, always ready to help if they were needed.

"Let me see," said the March Hare. "This is where O. D. Cracknuts lives, isn't it?"

"Yes, sir," said the squirrel lady promptly.

"And his wife?" said the March Hare.

"Yes, sir. That's me."

"And are there any children over six and under sixteen?" went on the March Hare.

"Yes, sir. There's one here, and one over at his aunt's for the winter, and one over at his—"

Mrs. Cracknuts started to say, when the March Hare interrupted her. "I'm just after the one here," he said. "He has to go and get spring-cleaned at Mister Rubadub's house in Scrub-Up Land before he can go to the Land-Where-Spring-Is-Coming. It's the Fairy Queen's orders."

"Don't I know it?" cried Mrs. Cracknuts. "But I can't get him up. What am I going to do?"

The March Hare thought for a minute. "I have a plan," he said. "Let us see your little boy, Mrs. Cracknuts, will you? But be sure and call me 'doctor' when I'm in the room."

"Certainly," said Mrs. Cracknuts. So they all went into the Squirrel's house and up to Scamper's room.

There lay the little squirrel boy in bed with the covers up to his chin.

The March Hare went up to the bed and put his hand on Scamper's forehead.

"He's got a fever," Mrs. Cracknuts said. "A high fever."

"Dear me, Doctor!" said Mrs. Cracknuts. "Stick out your tongue, young fellow," said the March Hare.

Scamper stuck out a red tongue.

"Bad, very bad!" said the hare. "I think he has appendicitis and pneumonia and whooping cough and typhoid fever and mumps. Give him six spoonfuls of castor-oil and keep him in bed two months."

Scamper bounced out of bed in a hurry. "I'm not sick at all!" he shouted.

"Then come along and get your neck

"You will forgive me, lady fair," continued Melville Sartoris in his letter. "I assure you I am not in any way trying to belittle your husband. He's an upstanding sort of a chap even if a little self-sufficient."

"I'm only trying to convey to you the fact that as an outsider, a man who has had a great deal of experience in observing people, I am quite sure that the friend husband is the lover of wife."

"There, I know I've expressed myself awkwardly, for not for one moment do I think that Friend Sydney has ever told you how much he cares for you. Indeed, I think he has kept his head stuck in the sand of coldness and like an ostrich thinks that all the world would not have you see, is covered."

"Nevertheless, I know that with your woman's perspicacity, you are well aware that the man who always comes at your husband's call does not always do it because of the love he bears to him alone."

"I'm having a queer smile as I think of your consternation that I would dare to write you the things that I am writing, but, because of the conditions under which these letters are written, I don't mind telling you I am having the greatest romantic thrills I have ever had in all my life. I can say to you anything I want to about myself as well as everybody else. I can make you the most astonishing protestations, well knowing that you cannot stop me, because you do not know where to write to me and you never will."

"Dear lady of the snows, there are compensations in the fact that I shall never look upon your face again because, if it were otherwise, I intended some day to meet you face to face. I would never dare to tell you that more than any other woman on this earth, you intrigue and interest Melville Sartoris."

Surley, Little Marquise, you never received in all your life a letter that was more startling than the one from which I have quoted here and I feel quite wicked because I would not dare show it to Jack and yet it is nothing that I can help. I expected, however, that Jack would say that having read the first one, I could put all the others in the fire and open. I defy, however, any woman good or bad, who having read the first one, would ever torture her curiosity in the way it would torture it, if she destroyed the others, she received unwelcome. Melville Sartoris is extremely clever. He has built up for himself a most intriguing correspondence—one that has all the charm of intimacy and yet he has arranged matters in such a way that he can keep on or let go as he pleases. I have nothing to say.

What would I do if I could write him, Little Marquise?

STATIC GETTING WORSE AS WARM WEATHER NEARS

Scientists Have Learned That Yucatan Is Principal Source of Disturbance

With the coming of spring, sun at vernal equinox and swinging into the northern hemisphere, the nuisance of static not only will increase but it will come from a different direction.

Experiments in Washington and Porto Rico have given bearings which indicate Yucatan as the principal seat of the disturbance.

This localization of the source of static is considered by engineers to be the most promising hope for freedom from static's annoying squeals and shocks. The theory has been developed and demonstrated by Dr. L. W. Austin, chief of the laboratory for special radio transmission research maintained in Washington jointly by the United States Bureau of Standards and the International Union of Scientific Radio Telegraphy.

HITS LONG WAVES MOST

"For the average home radio receiving set, static intrudes mostly from shifting and comparatively local centers," says Dr. Austin.

"The tropical, long wave static, creates the greatest disturbance in radio reception at wavelengths far beyond those used in broadcasting. Static, however, is present at all wavelengths. It may be compared to a continuous spectrum of a ray of light. It will have frequencies that correspond to any wavelength.

"Learning to exclude this long wave length static will carry with it ideals as to how we may defeat the local static on small broadcasting sets.

"A thunderstorm 40 miles away often will cause more disturbance on a home radio receiving set than all the tropical static. But in the long wave receiving sets for wireless telegraph, messages from across the ocean, the tropical static is tremendous. Transoceanic stations use a wavelength of from 11,000 to 18,000 meters, where static is much more severe than in the short-length broadcasting range.

"The transoceanic radio telegraph station at Riverhead, L. I., recognized the source of tropical static by building antennae which exclude reception from the southwest. It is not possible to filter out the static and receive messages from the same direction."

LOOP HELPS RECEPTION

"But with a combination of the loop and simple antenna, one may shut one's ears to a given direction. For instance, if static is coming from the southwest, one in Washington may turn off messages—and static—from Atlanta, and still hear New York.

"Amateurs and broadcast listeners might find it helpful to construct unidirectional receiving systems such as the loop antenna combination, not only for keeping out of static but also for reducing interference.

"Conditions that breed static occur when there is friction between air masses which differ in such qualities as temperature and moisture.

"These conditions often occur where there are strong vertical currents, as in the mountains. They occur mostly over land rather than water, because there are sharper variations in temperature between adjacent stretches of land. And they occur most favorably under the vertical rays of the sun, which means in the tropics.

"All these conditions are met in our theory that this long wave static is produced most vigorously in winter in Brazil, and in summer in Mexico."

PRESENT ALL-COLLEGE PLAY IN TWO MONTHS

This Nurse Just Couldn't Stop Coughing

SPECIALISTS DIDN'T HELP

It takes more than ordinary sweet, syrupy cough mixtures to stop a stubborn cough that persists in hanging on.

For slight ordinary coughs almost any decent cough syrup will do, but if you have one of those tough ones that won't yield to common remedies and often keeps you awake at night then your one best bet is Broncholine Emulsion.

Often one half bottle forces the most stubborn cough to yield and you are better almost before you know it. There is no sugar, chloroform or dope in Broncholine Emulsion; it's a wonderful medicine for people who are getting over a heavy cold or an attack of flu.

A New York nurse just couldn't stop coughing even after consulting specialists yet one half bottle of Broncholine Emulsion did stop it—completely.

Ask Union Pharmacy, Vogel's Drug Store or any good dealer for a bottle—often three or four doses will stop an ordinary cough.

At the right is Miss Fay Lanphier, "Miss America" in the last Atlantic City beauty pageant.

Berkeley, Calif.—Woman the beautiful sex?

Not on your dandied knees—at least, not on the place where the dimpled knees ought to be!

Aunt with the praises of beautiful women! Put on the record, or tune in on the station, that sings of the pulchritude of man, the sterner sex!

Men are the beauties. Women, the beauties to our aestheticism!

Take it from none less than Prof. Frank G. Kleeberger, head of the physical education department of the University of California.

The professor knows beautiful boys when he sees them, because his job is to pick three boy beauties—"super-men"—from the school each year.

And no beauty contest judge could so hard a task which he when the lovely, pretty, beautiful boys come trooping around the professor of pulchritude, all attired in their outside woostie bathing suits, showing every pulchritudinous charm.

"Take girls in bathing suits. What do you see? Bumps and cave-ins and all sorts of imperfections."

"Now take the boys. What do you see? Greek Gods, straight as saplings, filled out where they ought to be filled out, and scooped out where they ought to be scooped out."

"Look at the chorus man—handsomely formed, rarely lean, rarely stout." Then the professional champion of the beauty that is the male's hands this out to the girls—

"Girls do everything to promote their beauty—gaudy dress, cosmetics, unceasing care. Men do not dress to enhance their beauty or think much about it."

"And yet—women remain unattractive, slop-sided, clumsy, too thin, too stout, roundshouldered, and men are true objects of human beauty."

And it's all because the male exercises more and lives more naturally, summarizes he!

UNCLE SAM IS LOOKING FOR MORE DRAFTSMEN

Civil service examinations for draftsmen and for physiotherapy aide and assistant will be held this spring by the United States Civil Service Commission, according to notice received at the Appleton postoffice from John T. Doyle, secretary of the commission in Washington, D. C. There is an immediate need of a considerable number of detail and design draftsmen, the announcement stated.

Detail draftsmen are needed for marine engine and boiler, marine electrical, and ship-piping work at salaries ranging from $5.55 to $7.60 a day, and design draftsmen are needed for ship and ship-piping work at salaries ranging from $8.08 to $10.16 a day. Applicants will not be assembled for written tests, but will be rated on their education, experience, fitness and specimens of their work, it was said. Full information and application blanks may be obtained from the secretary of the Fourth United States Civil Service District, 1723 East N. W., Washington, D. C.

Special attention was called in the notice that enough applicants for the positions for physiotherapy aide and physiotherapy assistant to fill vacancies in St. Elizabeth hospital, Washington, D. C., and in the field services of the Veterans bureau and the Public Health service were not secured in the number desired from previous examinations, and these will be held again in Appleton and other cities throughout the country. Receipt of applications for these examinations will close April 17 and May 15, 1926, and the dates for the assembling of competitors will be stated on the admission cards sent applicants after the close of receipt of applications. Information concerning these examinations may be secured from the secretary of the United States Civil Service board at the local postoffice.

TEAMS PREPARE FOR HOME TRIP

Athletics, Phillies and Pirates Already Started on Trek to Home Towns

Chicago—(AP)—Training camp was their conditions have not been favorable to all of the major league baseball clubs but the opening of the season cannot be postponed. The next few days will see most of the teams on the road homeward bound some in satisfactory condition and others in less-than-factory condition.

Boston's Red Sox who trained at New Orleans have suffered most from the weather and their journey followed them. At Birmingham Wednesday the Red Sox were overcast and killed time when a me being closed off.

Among the dreary homeward bound are the two Philadelphia outfits, the Athletics and Phillies, and the Pittsburgh Pirates world champion. Snow prevented the Pirates from playing at Wichita, Kan. Wednesday.

Connie Mack whose Athletics are considered a pennant winning chance insists that if his players are not in fit for the race they never will be.

The Washington Senators Thursday started a nine game tour which will take them to home, the New York Yankees and Giants, and the Brooklyn Dodgers in Tennessee.

St. Louis, the Yankees and the Chicago White Sox will play their first game Thursday with prospects of getting to the home lot in St. Louis with much brighter prospects than last year.

The Cincinnati Reds played Fort Lauderdale Thursday then were to spend a night at Hollywood. Before starting the northward trek by the end of the week or the middle of next week the Detroit Tigers, St. Louis Cardinals, Chicago White Sox and the Chicago Cubs will be homeward bound. Cubs orders at August 1st and the big possibility that the Tigers will train elsewhere next year. Eight games will be played by the Cardinals before they arrive home from Dallas and the Chicago White Sox will play their first game at St. Louis this week before breaking camp. The Cubs spent Wednesday indoors but the Sox broke up on slugging against southern.

Home camps featured the fourth National games played Wednesday. At Los Angeles Jack Wilson and Gabby Hartnett of the Cubs doubled two runs drives each all coming with two men on to beat the Los Angeles team. Goslin topped a four bagger in the fifth Senators victorious battle against Baltimore at Tampa and Clifton of the Boston Braves got a homer against the Providence club at St. Petersburg. Manager Knickerbocker of the Braves suffered a slight injury when spiked by Wright of Providence. Walter Johnson worked the first three innings against Baltimore and held off the night.

The Cleveland Indians played at Atlanta Thursday after adding a victory to their list at Worcester, Mass. Wednesday. Dutch Evers pitched sensationally during his six innings turn in the box but shared the honors with his pitchers.

Madison, Pa. — Miles Wallace of Cleveland beat Pedro Lopez Wheeling W. Va. 10 rounds.

DECIDE WORLD PIN TITLE

JIMMY SMITH AND COUNT GLEAGUER (INSET)

One of the greatest bowling matches in the history of the game will take place when Jimmy Smith works next week's match and Count Gleaguer. Gleaguer's best club in a 600 am. off in Cleveland April 1 and 2.

Smith who has been rolling down the runways for the last 25 years has just completed a 100 pin wide tour of several months' duration and is reported in the best shape of his length career. Gleaguer has been bowling throughout the last 10 years and is likewise said to be in for the battle which will be for the world's unofficial singles champion hip.

Big Ten Gridders Start Spring Practices Today

Chicago—(AP)—All the Big Ten football squads except Michigan are in Notre Dame and Lenoir start their midweek of spring training. The pack of the freshmen joining the varsity squads for some six weeks of preliminary training.

One new coach makes his debut next fall in the Western conference. Pat Page of Indiana. For several years Page has had great success at Butler University and last winter he was chosen to succeed Ned Brown, who went from Indiana to Annapolis. The two coaches who were new to the Big Ten last fall set a high mark for Page to shoot at. Spears at Minnesota lost a tie for the Big Ten championship by a mid-game defeat at the hands of Michigan and Little of Wisconsin lost one game to the champion Wolverines.

Among the assistant coaches, the one of them is a full center. However, conference has added a number of his lieutenants. To be Gallatin, Nick, talented assistant at Duluth, Minn. Underlined, rejected the tempting of professional offers to join the Ohio football staff. Spurts is angling for the job that will give the Sioux City cow-potey, Clark, former Illinois star, and recently Kansas coach to add to the Minnesota squad seems the most fortunate in veteran material still eligible for next fall's campaign. Spears has 15 lettermen of the team which came close to winning the title Wisconsin coaches in a veteran in backfield in prospect for next fall and only three veterans missing from the line. Eight lettermen will be lost to Coach Phelan of Purdue including four of his high ranking point scorers but he has thirteen veterans in sight for next fall. Pat Page will have sixteen lettermen and 19 veterans of the freshman squad to work on this spring. Michigan loses only a few veterans but they formed the keystone of the stone wall line behind which Benny Friedman tossed the Yostmen to a Conference title last fall. Friedman's two receivers, Oosterbaan and Floyd are waiting the spring training camp on April 20 but replacements for such linemen as Edwards, Bibcock, Hawkins and Brown may be hard to locate. All American tackles are not so numerous.

To simulate the Ohio squad Coach White planning his 11th annual basketball tournament in the Big Ten has offered bonuses for the individual champions this spring in 400 kicking, 200 forward passing and such things. He regards his freshmen in football of last fall as the most promising in years which may mean that Ohio will again be floating around the top for the title next November. The Northwestern squad loses one of the smartest football players the Purple ever had, Center Tim Lowry who won the Chicago Tribune cup last fall is the Big Ten player most valuable to his team. Monte Tate, who two years ago ran Grange a close race for scoring honors, succeeds Lowry as captain next fall. Spring practice at Northwestern started last week and the prospect of a new stadium and a victory last fall over Michigan has created great enthusiasm.

Tommy Hughes, Detroit, Shired Andy Tomackey, McKeesport, Pa.

Los Angeles, Calif. — Fidel LaBarba, flyweight champion, beat Oliver Senio, Philippines, 10 rounds.

The Ostrich thinks he's a wise old bird

When he 'disappears' by sticking his head in the sand.

But it doesn't become a great many people to laugh at this simple display, too many of them are doing the ostrich stunt themselves!

They think that the way to save money is not to spend it. They deprive themselves of some things they should enjoy and then spend much more on other things than they'd need to. They bury their heads in the "I can't afford it" sand and never see the scores of opportunities to get what they want at unusual prices.

In other words, they don't take advantage of the double chance to practice real thrift and get the greatest enjoyment out of the money they spend, that the service of the A-B-C Classified Section offers every day.

STOMACH UPSET?

Get at the Real Cause—Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That's what thousands of stomach sufferers are doing now. Instead of taking tonics, or trying to patch up a poor digestion, they are attacking the real cause of the ailment—clogged liver and disordered bowels.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets arouse the liver in a soothing, healing way. When the liver and bowels are performing their natural functions, away goes indigestion and stomach troubles.

Have you a bad taste, coated tongue, poor appetite, a lazy, don't-care feeling, no ambition or energy, trouble with undigested foods? Take Olive Tablets the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color. They do the work without griping, cramps or pain.

Take one or two at bedtime for quick relief. Eat what you like. 15c and 30c.

WANT ANOTHER TRIAL IN ASSAULT DAMAGE CASE

Holding that an award of $50 damages to George Thiess in his suit against Henry Rammer, growing out of an alleged assault, was insufficient, attorneys for Thiess were to argue for a new trial before Judge Edgar V. Werner in circuit court Thursday afternoon. A jury awarded Thiess $50 in circuit court last week and his attorneys contended that it would merely pay the expenses of the trial.

Thiess was awarded $100 damages by a jury in municipal court a few weeks before, but Rammer appealed the case to circuit court.

HOLD SAVIOUR AS MODEL IN LENTEN SHOP SERMONS

Two Ministers Conduct Noon Hour Services in Two Appleton Mills

Dr. H. E. Peabody, pastor of First Congregational church and the Rev.
F. C. Reuter, pastor of First English Lutheran church, talked at shop meetings at the Tuttle Press Co. and the Valley Iron Works Co. Wednesday noon. Eight noon gatherings in Appleton industrial plants were arranged for Holy week by the Y. M.
C. A. religious work committee.

Dr. Peabody spoke on the eternal triangle of Christ the Saviour, man the sinner and the saint. He illustrated his talk by citing the case of the wicked woman had anointed the feet of Christ and asked forgiveness for her sins which was granted by the Saviour. Simon, later canonized as a saint, rebuked Christ for having as a saint to do with the sinful woman.
The lesson in this story as explained by Dr. Peabody was that Simon as a saint should have been more charitable to those who were not as righteous as he considered himself to be.

The theme of Mr. Reuter's talk to employees of Valley Iron Works Co. was the Greatest Thing in Life, and the central thought was that Jesus stands throughout the ages as a sinless Christ. William Meyer played a cornet solo at this meeting.

Thursday noon shop meetings were conducted at the Appleton Wire Works by the Rev. Henry Galley and at the Wisconsin Wire Works by Dr.
Virgil B. Scott.

ASK APPLETON FOLKS TO FEED HUNGRY BIRDS

With the arrival of spring weather in Appleton a few weeks ago, robins, sparrows and other early spring birds left their winter homes in the south and were seen flitting about the trees and in parks. But Old Man Winter changed his mind Tuesday and instead of going to rest for several months, he made his reappearance in the form of a blizzard. The ground has been covered with snow and the little creatures are unable to find food.

An appeal to Appleton men and women to scatter breadcrumbs on the drifts to feed the birds has been made by several Appleton birdlovers.

Tuesday, were held at 1:30 Thursday afternoon from the home. The Odd Fellow lodge of Hortonville, had charge of the services. Burial was in the Stephensville cemetery.

BUSKE FUNERAL.
The funeral of Albert Buske, 62, who died Tuesday at his home, 302 E.
Wisconsin-ave., was held at 1:30 and at 2 o'clock at Zion Lutheran church. The Rev. Theodore Marth was in charge of the services and burial was in Riverside cemetery.

MRS. BARBARA THOMA.
Mrs. Barbara Thoma, 45, of Sugar-bush, died Wednesday afternoon after an illness of about one year. She is survived by three sons, Eldo, Herbert and Norman and one daughter, Evelyn; three brothers, John Stross-enreuther of Lebanon, Henry Stross-enreuther of New London and Gustave Strossenreuther of Manawa; two daughters, Mrs. August Zemple of Manawa and Mrs. Henry Steingraber of Maple Creek.

BIRTHS

A daughter, Lorraine Louise, was born Wednesday to Mr. and Mrs. Walter Johnson of Olean, N. Y. Mrs.
Johnson formerly was Miss Veronica
Green of this city.

A son, Robert John, was born at St.
Vincent hospital at Green Bay to Mr.
and Mrs. Joseph A. Linsmeyer of Black Creek.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. E.
Krauszich, 1524 S. Mason-st., Thursday morning at St. Elizabeth hospital.

OUTLINE PROGRAM OF HOUSE TO PRESIDENT

Washington, D. C. (AP)—Speaker
Coulidge outlined to President Coolidge Thursday a tentative legislative program for the house for next week or two which would include consideration of aviation legislation, American-German claims and Spanish war pensions.

Plum relief, the speaker said, holds an indefinite status as to priority, because the house agriculture committee has not reached a decision on the principal bills before it.

President Coolidge discussed the whole situation from the standpoint of finances involved. His attitude on various measures was not disclosed.

A legislative program for the Senate was outlined Thursday by Charles McNamara of the Republican conference in a notice sent to all Republican senators. It said the public building bill, the railroad labor bill, the bill for consolidation of national banking associations and aviation legislation should be passed this session.

BUT NOBODY WAS FOOLED BY THIS APRIL FOOL JOKE

One of the most original April Fool jokes in Appleton on Thursday was not on an individual but on the public at large, though those fooled seemed to get a little laugh out of it. A roadster belonging to an Appleton youth had been left in front of a store on N. Appleton-st. since early Wednesday evening and pedestrians stroling past the car Thursday found snow nearly a foot deep on its top, heaped up as high as the top of the doors on both sides and high above the windshield on the front, burying the machine so that only a few parts were visible. High on the peak of the mountain of snow which covered the car was a huge sign which read
"April Fool" and in smaller letters below, "Spring is here."

CHAPMAN'S HOPE FOR LIFE FADES

Hartford Women Petition to Save Bandit from Noose
Tuesday Morning

BULLETIN.—An appeal for stay of execution of Gerald Chapman, the mail bandit, under sentence to be executed April 6 for the murder of a New Britain Conn. policeman, will be made Thursday to a justice of the supreme court.

Hartford, Conn. (AP)—Gerald Chapman, bandit, is beginning to realize that his chances of escaping the gallows early next Tuesday are slight.
This statement came Thursday from his counsel after they had informed him in state prison that Governor Trumbull had refused to grant a reprieve.

Frederick A. Grochl, Chapman's counsel, urged the governor to grant Chapman a reprieve of at least one week, because of new evidence but the governor said "no, not an hour." He said that it would be an unwarranted interference with the judicial department to stop the execution now.
"Chapman had his day in court," Governor Trumbull said. "The case has been heard in the courts before several judges."

A petition urging Governor Trumbull to grant a reprieve was being circulated Thursday by two Hartford clubwomen. They will offer it to the governor in case a motion for a new trial is overruled. They obtained 150 signatures Wednesday night, soon after the petition was started.

Chapman is under sentence for killing a New Britain policeman in a burglary.

MARKET SETTLES DOWN TO SMOOTHER COURSE

New York (AP)—Having weathered the recent storm of liquidation, the stock market settled down Thursday to a smoother course, although speculative buying of selling continued to ruffle the surface of trading. Prices of many leading railroad and industrial shares rallied one to four points at the opening, but the violence of Wednesday's rally induced fresh short selling and profit taking which subsequently reduced some of the early gains. Easier money conditions stiffened the resistance of financing houses, however, and the forward movement was quickly resumed.
Hudson Motors, after falling to 75 1/2, rebounded to 79 and at noon Atlantic Refining, Pan American R.
National Tea, American Waterworks, United Fruit, Otis Elevator, American Ice and a number of representative rail shares were selling three to four one half points above Wednesday night's closing levels.

MADDEN MAKES APPEAL ON ENGINEERS' REPORT

Washington, D. C. (AP)—Branding a report of army engineers of the Illinois waterway as a "milk and water report on which they got on all four sides of the question," Representative Madden, Republican, Illinois, appealed to the house rivers and harbors committee Thursday to provide a waterway to connect the Great Lakes and the Mississippi river that would meet the full demands of that section.

Under the proposal to retain two locks in the river, he said, the waterway would be able to handle only 31 per cent of the tonnage of the project already created by Chicago and to that extent the money spent would be wasted. A diversion of 10,000 cubic second feet of water from Lake Michigan, Representative Madden said, has been responsible for only a small part of the lowering of the lake's level—only five or six inches of the lowering of from 40 to 60 inches in past years.

LAKE SUPERIOR STILL BARRED BY ICE SHEETS

Superior (AP)—Ice in the Superior-Duluth harbor is 20 inches thick and the field in Lake Superior for miles out is about the same. The latest navigation opening in many years is anticipated here. The usual opening date, figured over a number of years, is about April 16.

Severe weather of the past week has cheated north Wisconsin out of its early spring songsters, according to T.
J. McCarthy, Superior Normal ornitho-logist.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hoffman left Thursday for Delavan where they will spend a few days with their son George Hoffu.

JOHN FINDS HIS "STOLEN" TIRE PARKED ON ROAD

John Freuden, rural mail carrier on route 2, found that some of his friends couldn't wait until Alf foils day to play their April fool tricks on him. It is indicated on the records at the police station. A few days ago John went into the station to complain that the spare tire on his car had been stolen in broad daylight while he was in the postoffice. He told how the thief had taken the keys out of the ignition lock of his car and used them to open the spare tire lock and then put the keys back on the front seat where he could easily find them.

The police promised their aid but the next day John reported that he had recovered the tire. It had been placed in the center of the road on his mail route in such a position that he would have had to run over it if he had not stopped.

PRICES SOAR IN EARLY TRADING

Rails and Motors Forced Down by Resistance to Rising Market

New York (AP)—Encouraged by the first important rally in more than a month, constructive stock market forces continued to hold their advantage Thursday pushing prices sharply higher in the early dealings. Remington Typewriter bounded up 3 1/2 points, American Smelting 2 points, and initial gains of a point or so were recorded by United States Steel, Mack Trucks, North American, S. S. Kreske and Frisco. Hurried short covering sent most of the motors up under the leadership of Chrysler.

Resistance to the early rise developed in the subsequent dealings, with trading proceeding at a more normal pace. Further gains of two to three and a half points were made by Delaware and Hudson, Dupont, Chrysler, Coca Cola and Texas Gulf Sulphur.
Points by such rails shares as Nickel
Plate, Chicago and Northwestern, Louisville and Nashville, Wheeling and Lake Erie and Atlantic Coast line before the market eased off again on renewed selling of the motors and high priced specialties. Hudson Motors, after climbing to 78, fell back to 75 1/2, and General Electric, Wood ward and American Locomotive, each one to two points lower. Baldwin Locomotive opened four points higher but soon lost half its gain. Foreign exchange were irregular at the opening with demand sterling unchanged at 4.85 1/2 and Belgian francs plunging to a new low level at 3.63 1/2 cents.

The market had to absorb a considerable volume of renewed short selling and realizing in consequence of the notable rebound from recent low levels, before the upward movement became well defined again around noon. Aside from special weakness here and there prices were maintained well above Wednesday's closing levels. Some of the pivotal stocks fluctuated widely in response to the play of strong speculative forces. Hudson Motors rallying from an early low of 75 1/2 to 89 while Bal-win went down from 10 1/2, its initial figure to 9 1/2. Call loans renewed unchanged at 5 per cent.

The closing was strong. Sales approximated 1,900,000 shares.

TWO BIG CHURCH SOCIETIES MAY MERGE EFFORTS

Mrs. Peabody to Preside at Fellowship Luncheon at Mission Club Convention

Mrs. R. E. Peabody, wife of the Rev. H. E. Peabody, pastor of First Congregational church here, will preside at the fellowship luncheon which will conclude the joint meeting of the Wisconsin Women Home Missionary union and the Wisconsin Board of Missions of the Interior of the Congregational church of Wisconsin in Beloit, April 20, 21 and 22, according to the program of the meetings announced this week.

The most important business at the sessions will be the consideration of the proposed merger of the two groups which have functioned separately for 40 years. Action will be taken Wednesday, April 21, when a report will be given by the special committee on reorganization. Mrs. John Haffville, Lake Mills, former president of the Home Missionary union and wife of the Rev. John Haffville, pastor of the First Congregational church of Appleton for many years, will preside at the meeting during the reorganization of the two societies prior to the election of officers for the new organization.

One phase of the work being done under the sponsorship of the missionary bodies will be presented by Miss Lauretta Dibble, a Kenosha girl, who is home on leave from her mission work in Portuguese West Africa.

Outstanding speakers include the Rev. Frederick F. Shannon, noted pastor of the Central church, Chicago; the Rev. Herbert W. Gates, Boston, Mass., secretary of the National Education society; and George N. White, Chicago, secretary of the American Mission society.

WAR VETS TO DEMAND PENSION BILL ACTION

A resolution to hold every member of congress responsible for passing of this session a pension bill, for disabled Spanish war veterans, their widows and orphans probably will be adopted at the meeting of the Charles O. Lee camp No. 3 of United Spanish war veterans next Tuesday evening. A similar resolution was passed by the Oshkosh camp of veterans at a meeting last week.

The veterans believe that consideration equivalent to that of veterans of other wars is due them, and will appeal to congress to pass the bill during this session before the adjournment in May. W. H. Zuchko stated.

The pension bill was reported out favorably by the pension committee.

BROADCAST REPORTS OF U. S. ATTACHES

Washington —(AP)—Commercial attaches assigned by the Commerce department to foreign countries, upon their return to Washington at the expiration of their foreign tours of duty, are now instructed to write radio talks on the business, trade and social conditions of the countries they have been accredited to.

About 100 of these talks have been delivered in the past six months from nearly twenty cities and letters to the department attest to the public appreciation of this new type of instruction and entertainment.

Always remember this—Dr. Price's Phosphate Baking Powder leaves no bitter taste in the food.
